In a city with a population of one million 1 2 or more, charges for towing and associated storage shall not exceed the amounts set forth in section 20-509 of the administrative code of the 3 4 city of New York. A lien under this section may be had for any amount 5 over the limits set forth in such section. A lien under this article may б be had against an interest in real property and against an interest in 7 personal property that can be sufficiently described within the meaning 8 of section 9-108 of the uniform commercial code, except that a lien 9 under this article shall not extend to deposit accounts or goods as those terms are defined in section 9-102 of the uniform commercial 10 11 code. 2. Notice of a lien under this section may be filed at any time not 12 13 later than three years following violation giving rise to the claim. A 14 notice of lien on personal property must be filed, together with a financing statement, in the filing office as set forth in section 9-501 15 16 of the uniform commercial code. 17 3. Within five days before or thirty days after filing the notice of a lien authorized pursuant to this article, the lienor shall serve a copy 18 of such notice upon the owner of the commercial towing company, if a 19 20 natural person, (a) by delivering the same to him or her personally, or 21 if the owner cannot be found, to his or her agent or attorney, or (b) by leaving it as his or her last known place of residence or business, with 22 a person of suitable age and discretion, or (c) by registered or certi-23 fied mail addressed to his or her last known place of residence or busi-24 25 ness, or (d) if such person owns real property, by affixing a copy ther-26 eof conspicuously on such property, between the hours of nine o'clock in 27 the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon. The lienor also shall, within thirty days after filing the notice of lien, affix a copy thereof 28 conspicuously on the real property identified in the notice of lien, 29 30 between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in 31 the afternoon. If the commercial towing company be a corporation, said 32 service shall be made (i) by delivering such copy to and leaving the 33 same with the president, vice-president, secretary or clerk to the corporation, the cashier, treasurer or a director or managing agent 34 35 thereof, personally, within the state, or (ii) if such officer cannot be 36 found within the state, by affixing a copy thereof conspicuously on such 37 property between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and four 38 o'clock in the afternoon, or (iii) by registered or certified mail addressed to its last known place of business, or (iv) by delivery to 39 the secretary of the department of state in the same manner as required 40 by subparagraph one of paragraph (b) of section three hundred six of the 41 42 business corporation law. Failure to file proof of such a service with 43 the county clerk within thirty-five days after the notice of lien is filed shall terminate the notice as a lien. Until service of the notice 44 45 has been made, as above provided, an owner, without knowledge of the 46 lien, shall be protected in payment made in good faith to any other 47 person claiming a lien. 48 4. (a) No lien on real property under this section shall be a lien for 49 a longer period than one year after the notice of lien has been filed, unless an extension to such lien is filed with the county clerk of the 50 51 county in which the notice of lien is filed within one year from the 52 filing of the original notice of lien, continuing such lien and such 53 lien shall be redocketed as of the date of filing such extension. Such 54 extension shall contain the names of the lienor and the owner of the real property against whose interest therein such lien is claimed, a 55 56 brief description of the property affected by such lien, the amount of such lien, and the date of filing the notice of lien. No lien shall be 1 2 continued by such extension for more than one year from the filing ther-3 eof. In the event an action is not commenced to obtain judgment on the 4 claim or to foreclose the lien within such extended period, such lien 5 shall be extinguished unless an order be granted by a court of record or б a judge or justice thereof, continuing such lien, and such lien shall 7 be redocketed as of the date of granting such order and a statement made 8 that such lien is continued by virtue of such order. 9 (b) No lien on personal property under this section shall be a lien 10 for a longer period than one year after the financing statement has been 11 recorded, unless an extension to such lien, is filed with the filing office in which the financing statement is required to be filed pursuant 12 13 to section 9-501 of the uniform commercial code within one year from the 14 filing of the original financing statement, continuing such lien. Such extension shall contain the names of the lienor and the owner of the 15 16 property against whose interest therein such lien is claimed, a brief 17 description of the prior financing statement to be extended, and the date of filing the prior financing statement. No lien shall be continued 18 19 by such extension for more than one year from the filing thereof. In the event an action is not commenced to obtain judgement on the claim or to 20 21 foreclose the lien within such extended period, such lien shall be extinguished unless an order be granted by a court of record or a judge 22 or justice thereof, continuing such lien, and such lien shall be refiled 23 as of the date of granting such order and a statement made that such 24 lien is continued by virtue of such order. 25 26 (c) If a lienor is made a party defendant in an action to enforce 27 another lien, and the plaintiff or such defendant has filed a notice of the pendency of the action within the time prescribed in this section, 28 29 the lien of such defendant is thereby continued. Such action shall be 30 deemed an action to enforce the lien of such defendant lienor. The failure to file a notice of pendency of action shall not abate the action as 31 32 to any person liable for the payment of the debt specified in the notice 33 of lien, and the action may be prosecuted to judgment against such person. The provisions of this section in regard to continuing liens 34 35 shall apply to liens discharged by deposit or by order on the filing of 36 an undertaking. Where a lien is discharged by deposit or by order, a 37 notice of pendency of action shall not be filed. 38 (d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a lienor commences a foreclosure action or an action to obtain a judgment on the claim within one year 39 from the filing of the notice of lien on real property or the recording 40 of the financing statement creating lien on personal property, the lien 41 42 shall be extended during the pendency of the action and for one hundred 43 twenty days following the entry of final judgment in such action, unless the action results in a final judgment or administrative order in the 44 45 lienor's favor on the claims and the lienor commences a foreclosure 46 action, in which instance the lien shall be valid during the pendency of the foreclosure action. If a lien is extended due to the pendency of a 47 foreclosure action or an action to obtain a judgment on the claim, the 48 lienor shall file a notice of such pendency and extension with the coun-49 ty clerk of the county in which the notice of lien is filed, containing 50 51 the names of the parties to the action, the object of the action, a brief description of the property affected thereby, and the time of 52 53 filing the notice of lien, or in the case of a lien on personal property 54 shall file such notice with the office authorized to accept financing statements pursuant to section 9-501 of the uniform commercial code. 55

1 (e) A lien, the duration of which has been extended by the filing of a notice of the pendency of an action as above provided, shall neverthe-2 3 less terminate as a lien after such notice has been canceled as provided 4 in section sixty-five hundred fourteen of the civil practice law and 5 rules or has ceased to be effective as constructive notice as provided б in section sixty-five hundred thirteen of the civil practice law and 7 rules. 8 § 171. Enforcement of lien. 1. A lien on real property authorized 9 under this article may be enforced against such property, and against a 10 person liable for the judgment upon which the lien is founded, by an 11 action, by the lienor, his assignee or legal representative, in the supreme court or in a county court otherwise having jurisdiction, 12 regardless of the amount of such judgment, or in a court which has 13 14 jurisdiction in an action founded on a contract for a sum of money 15 equivalent to the amount of such judgment, in the same manner as 16 prescribed in article three of this chapter. 17 2. A lien on personal property specified in this article may immediately be enforced against the property through a foreclosure as 18 19 prescribed in article nine of the uniform commercial code, or upon judg-20 ment obtained by the owner of the motor vehicle, or the attorney general 21 of the state of New York, and may be enforced in any manner available to the judgment creditor pursuant to article nine of the uniform commercial 22 23 code or other applicable laws. 3. Before such order shall be granted, a notice shall be served upon the lienor, either personally 28 or by leaving it at his last known place of residence or attorney's 29 30 place of business, with a person of suitable age, with directions to 31 deliver it to the lienor. Such notice shall require the lienor to 32 commence an action to enforce the lien, or to commence an action to obtain judgment on the claim upon which the lien was established, within 33 a time specified in the notice, not less than ninety days from the time 34 35 of service, or show cause at a special term of a court of record, or at 36 a county court, in a county in which the property is situated, at a time 37 and place specified therein, why the notice of lien filed or the bond 38 given should not be vacated and cancelled, or the deposit returned, as the case may be. Proof of such service and that the lienor has not 39 commenced the action to foreclose such lien or an action to obtain judg-40 41 ment on the claim upon which the lien was established, as directed in 42 the notice, shall be made by affidavit, at the time of applying for such order. 43 § 2. The commercial tower 4 shall accept cash and all other forms of payment that such commercial 5 tower accepts in the ordinary course of business, including credit and б debit cards as those terms are defined in section five hundred eleven of 7 this chapter as payment for all or part of the charges for towing and 8 repair services accepted and provided. The commercial tower may require 9 such proof of identification from persons making payments in forms other 10 than cash as the commercial tower requires for such payments in the ordinary course of business. If the owner or operator of a vehicle 11 declines services of the commercial tower or cannot or will not provide 12 13 payment and identification for towing or repair services, a commercial 14 tower shall notify law enforcement about the location and identification 15 of the vehicle and its occupants.
