2. The supreme court of the state of New York shall have jurisdiction over all suits brought for the vindication of civil rights as provided in subdivision one of this section. To the extent that the laws of the state of New York furnish a remedy for the vindication of such civil rights, such laws shall be applied; but in all cases where such laws are deficient in the provisions necessary to furnish suitable remedies, the common law shall be extended to and govern the said courts in the trial and disposition of the matter.

- 3. (a) In any action or proceeding to enforce this section or the New York human rights law, the court must award the prevailing party, other than the state of New York, a reasonable attorney's fee as part of the costs, except that in any action brought against a judicial officer for an act or omission taken in such officer's judicial capacity such officer shall not be held liable for any costs, including attorney's fees, unless such action was clearly in excess of such officer's jurisdiction.
- 16 (b) In awarding an attorney's fee under paragraph (a) of this subdivi-17 sion in any action or proceeding to enforce a provision of this article, 18 the court shall include reasonable expert fees as part of the attorney's 19 fee.
- 4. This article shall supplement and not displace any jurisdiction currently existing in the courts or administrative agencies of this state to the extent that other laws of this state already provide a remedy for the type of injury referred to in this section.
- 5. In interpreting this section, the courts may consider the fundamental principles already enunciated by the federal courts in interpreting 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988, which are the parallel federal civil rights laws.
- 28 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 29 have become a law.
