AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to removing the social security offset for New York city uniformed correction officers who are members of the New York city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 505 of the retirement and social security law, as 2 amended by chapter 18 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 § 505. Service retirement benefits; police/fire members, New York city
5 uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan members and investigator 6 revised plan members. a. The normal service retirement benefit for 7 police/fire members, New York city uniformed correction/sanitation
8 revised plan members and investigator revised plan members at normal 9 retirement age shall be a pension equal to fifty percent of final aver-
10 age salary, less fifty percent of the primary social security retirement
11 benefit commencing at age sixty-two, as provided in section five hundred 12 eleven of this article, except that for members of the uniformed force
13 of the New York city department of correction who are New York city
14 uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan members, the normal service
15 retirement benefit shall not be reduced by the primary social security
16 retirement benefit commencing at age sixty-two as provided in section 17 five hundred eleven of this article.

18 b. The early service retirement benefit for police/fire members, New 19 York city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan members and investigator revised plan members shall be a pension equal to two and one-tenths percent of final average salary times years of credited service at the completion of twenty years of service or upon attainment of age sixty-two, increased by one-third of one percent of final average salary for each month of service in excess of twenty years, but not in excess of fifty percent of final average salary, less fifty percent of the primary social security retirement benefit commencing at age sixty-two as provided in section five hundred eleven of this article, provided, however, that New York city police/fire revised plan members, New York city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan members and investigator revised plan members shall not be eligible to retire for service prior to the attainment of twenty years of credited service, and provided further that for members of the uniformed force of the New York city department of correction who are New York city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan members, the early service retirement benefit shall not be reduced by the primary social security retirement benefit commencing at age sixty-two as provided in section five hundred eleven of this article.

c. A police/fire member, a New York city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan member or an investigator revised plan member who retires with twenty-two years of credited service or less may become eligible for annual escalation of the service retirement benefit if he elects to have the payment of his benefit commence on the date he would have completed twenty-two years and one month or more of service. In such event, the service retirement benefit shall equal two percent of final average salary for each year of credited service, less fifty percent of the primary social security retirement benefit commencing at age sixty-two as provided in section five hundred eleven of this article, except that for members of the uniformed force of the New York city department of correction who are New York city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan members, the service retirement benefit shall not be reduced by the primary social security retirement benefit commencing at age sixty-two as provided in section five hundred eleven of this article.

§ 2. Subdivision f of section 511 of the retirement and social security law, as amended by chapter 18 of the laws of 2012, is amended, subdivision g is relettered subdivision h, and a new subdivision g is added to read as follows:

f. This section shall not apply to general members in the uniformed correction force of the New York city department of correction or to uniformed personnel in institutions under the jurisdiction of the department of corrections and community supervision and security hospital treatment assistants, as those terms are defined in subdivision i of section eighty-nine of this chapter, provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall apply to [~~a~~] New York city sanitation members of the New York city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan [~~member~~].

g. This section shall not apply to members of the uniformed force of the New York city department of correction who are New York city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan members who receive a service retirement benefit pursuant to section five hundred five of this article or a deferred vested benefit pursuant to section five hundred sixteen of this article.

§ 3. Subdivision c of section 516 of the retirement and social security law, as amended by chapter 18 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:

1 c. The deferred vested benefit of police/fire members, New York city
2 police/fire revised plan members, New York city uniformed
3 correction/sanitation revised plan members or investigator revised plan 4 members shall be a pension commencing at early retirement age equal to 5 two and one-tenths percent of final average salary times years of cred-6 ited service, less fifty percent of the primary social security retire-7 ment benefit commencing at age sixty-two, as provided in section five 8 hundred eleven of this article, except that for members of the uniformed 9 force of the New York city department of correction who are New York
10 city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan members, the service
11 retirement benefit shall not be reduced by the primary social security
12 benefit commencing at age sixty-two as provided in section five hundred 13 eleven of this article. A police/fire member, a New York city
14 police/fire revised plan member, a New York city uniformed 15 correction/sanitation revised plan member or investigator revised plan 16 member may elect to receive his vested benefit commencing at early 17 retirement age or age fifty-five. If the vested benefit commences before 18 early retirement age, the benefit shall be reduced by one-fifteenth for 19 each year, if any, that the member's early retirement age is in excess 20 of age sixty, and by one-thirtieth for each additional year by which the 21 vested benefit commences prior to early retirement age. If such vested 22 benefit is deferred until after such member's normal retirement age, the 23 benefit shall be computed and subject to annual escalation in the same 24 manner as provided for an early retirement benefit pursuant to subdivi-25 sion c of section five hundred five of this article.

26 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
