Introduced by Sens. SEPULVEDA, ADDABBO -- (at request of the Office of Victim Services) -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law and the civil practice law and rules, in relation to commencing an action based upon a restitution order, or profits from a crime or funds of a convicted person pursuant to article twenty-two of the executive law

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 6 of section 420.10 of the 2 criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 618 of the laws of 1992,
3 is amended to read as follows:

4 (a) A fine, restitution or reparation imposed or directed by the court 5 shall be imposed or directed by a written order of the court containing 6 the amount thereof required to be paid by the defendant. The court's 7 order also shall direct the district attorney to file a certified copy 8 of such order with the county clerk of the county in which the court is 9 situate except where the court which issues such order is the supreme 10 court in which case the order itself shall be filed by the clerk of the 11 court acting in his or her capacity as the county clerk of the county in 12 which the court is situate. Such order shall be entered by the county 13 clerk in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action in accordance 14 with subdivision (a) of rule five thousand sixteen of the civil practice
15 law and rules. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an action 16 upon such order may be commenced within twenty years of the date such 17 order was imposed by the court. Even if the defendant was imprisoned for 18 failure to pay such fine, restitution or reparation, or has served the 19 period of imprisonment imposed, such order after entry thereof pursuant 20 to this subdivision may be collected in the same manner as a judgment in 21 a civil action by the victim, as defined in paragraph (b) of subdivision 22 four of section 60.27 of the penal law, to whom restitution or reparation was ordered to be paid, the estate of such person or the district attorney. The entered order shall be deemed to constitute a judgment-roll as defined in ~~[section]~~ rule five thousand seventeen of the civil practice law and rules and immediately after entry of the order, the county clerk shall docket the entered order as a money judgment pursuant to section five thousand eighteen of such law and rules. Wherever appropriate, the district attorney shall file a transcript of the docket of the judgment with the clerk of any other county of the state. Such a restitution or reparation order, when docketed shall be a first lien upon all real property in which the defendant thereafter acquires an interest, having preference over all other liens, security interests, and encumbrances whatsoever, except:

(i) a lien or interest running to the benefit of the government of the United States or the state of New York, or any political subdivision or public benefit corporation thereof; or

(ii) a purchase money interest in any property.

§ 2. Section 213-b of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 62 of the laws of 2001, is amended to read as follows:

§ 213-b. Action by a victim of a criminal offense. Notwithstanding any other limitation set forth in this article or in article five of the estates, powers and trusts law, an action by a crime victim, or the representative of a crime victim, as defined in subdivision six of section six hundred twenty-one of the executive law, may be commenced to recover damages from a defendant~~[+ (1)]~~ convicted of a crime which is the subject of such action, for any injury or loss resulting therefrom within ~~[seven]~~ twenty years of the date of the crime ~~[or (2) convicted of a specified crime as defined in paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section six hundred thirty-two-a of the executive law which is the subject of such action for any injury or loss resulting therefrom within ten years of the date the defendant was convicted of such specified crime]~~.

§ 3. The opening paragraph of section 5014 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 115 of the laws of 1965, is amended to read as follows:

Except as permitted by section 15-102 of the general obligations law and paragraph (a) of subdivision six of section 420.10 of the criminal procedure law, an action upon a money judgment entered in a court of the state may only be maintained between the original parties to the judgment where:

§ 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.
