AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring the disclosure of disabled tenants' rights to reasonable accommodations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 296 of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdivision 2-b to read as follows:

2-b. Every owner, lessee, sub-lessee, assignee, or managing agent of publicly-assisted housing accommodations or other person having the right of ownership or possession of or the right to rent or lease such accommodations shall disclose to all tenants and prospective tenants of their right to request reasonable modifications and accommodations if they have a disability pursuant to subdivision two-a of this section. Such disclosure shall be made in writing in such form and manner as the division may by regulation prescribe and provided to all current tenants within thirty days of the beginning of their tenancy, or thirty days from the effective date of this subdivision for current tenants. Such disclosure shall also be conspicuously posted in such form and manner as the division may by regulation prescribe on every vacant publicly-assisted housing accommodation that is available for rent.

§ 2. Section 296 of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdivision 18-a to read as follows:

18-a. Every owner, lessee, sub-lessee, assignee, or managing agent of, or other person having the right of ownership of or possession of or the right to rent or lease housing accommodations shall disclose to all tenants and prospective tenants of their right to request reasonable modifications and accommodations if they have a disability pursuant to subdivision eighteen of this section. Such disclosure shall be made in writing in such form and manner as the division may by regulation prescribe and provided to all current tenants within thirty days of the beginning of their tenancy, or thirty days from the effective date of this subdivision for current tenants. Such disclosure shall also be conspicuously posted in such form and manner as the division may by regulation prescribe on every vacant housing accommodation that is available for rent.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.
