Introduced by Sen. BROOKS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the military law, in relation to age requirements applicable to appointments or promotions of public employees who have been absent on military duty

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Subdivision 10-a of section 243 of the military law, as 2 amended by chapter 278 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as 3 follows:
4 10-a. Age requirements. If maximum age requirements are established by 5 law, or rule or by action of a civil commission for examination for, or 6 for appointment or promotion to, any position in the public service, the 7 period of military duty as hereinbefore defined, the period of service
8 after June twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred fifty, voluntarily entered 9 upon between January first, nineteen hundred forty-seven, and June twenty-10 seventh, nineteen hundred fifty, if such service otherwise falls 11 within the definition of military duty, and the period of terminal leave 12 granted by the military authorities of a candidate or eligible shall not 13 be included in computing the age of such candidate or eligible for the 14 purposes of such examination or appointment or promotion; provided, 15 however, that neither shall the total time deducted hereunder in computing 16 the age of a candidate or eligible exceed [~~six~~] seven years.
17 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.
