

STATE OF NEW YORK

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

June 16, 2019

Introduced by Sen. RAMOS -- (at request of the Governor) -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to granting collective bargaining rights to farm laborers and allowing farm laborers one day of rest each week and including farm laborers within the provisions pertaining to overtime compensation and unemployment insurance; to amend the public health law, in relation to the application of the sanitary code to all farm and food processing labor camps for migrant workers; to amend the workers' compensation law, in relation to the eligibility of farm laborers for workers' compensation benefits and the provision of claim forms to farm laborers injured in the course of employment and in relation to service as farm laborers; to amend the labor law, in relation to labor on a farm and regulating the employment of certain employees whose earning capacity is affected or impaired by youth or age; and to amend the labor law, in relation to unfair labor practices, impasse resolution procedures and the convening of a farm laborers wage board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "farm
2 laborers fair labor practices act".
3 § 2. Legislative findings and intent. 1. The legislature finds that 4 agriculture is one of New York's leading and most important industries,
5 resulting in over $5 billion annually and making New York a global lead-
6 er in many crops and agricultural products. Agriculture plays an essen-
7 tial role in the continued economic growth and vitality of New York
8 state. According to the United States Department of Agriculture's 2017
9 Agricultural Census, 98% of New York's farms are family owned and these 10 farms contributed $2.4 billion to the state's GDP in 2017.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 2. The legislature further finds that the success of New York's robust
2 agriculture industry is due to the collaborative work between farmers
3 and farm laborers. However, farm laborers are one of the few classes of 4 employees that are not covered by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act
5 or the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), denying these valuable 6 employees the same basic labor protections and the right to collective 7 bargaining that almost all other private sector workers enjoy. Despite 8 regularly working 50, 60, 70 or even more hours a week doing arduous and 9 difficult work, often with heavy equipment, pesticides, fertilizers and 10 other dangerous materials and in sometimes hazardous situations, farm 11 laborers remain excluded from collective bargaining statutes and the 12 right to a day of rest, overtime and other labor protections that are in 13 place at the state and/or federal level for other workers.

14 3. The legislature further finds that this industry is subject to 15 unique and unpredictable factors including climate and weather, pricing 16 and market requirements, seasonal harvests, immigration, and various 17 federal and state laws, rules and regulations that directly impact farm-
18 ers and require a unique balance and application of traditional labor 19 protections to ensure farm laborers have a voice in their own terms and 20 conditions of employment and access to basic labor protections while 21 also creating adaptability and responsiveness to the unique circum-
22 stances of farm operations.

23 4. The legislature further finds that the labor standards included in 24 this bill are intended solely for the purposes of transitioning into a 25 modern structure of rights and benefits for farm laborers that achieve 26 harmonious labor relations and stability of operations in the agricul-27 tural industry and are not intended for any other industry or sector of 28 the economy.

29 § 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 701 of the labor law, 30 as amended by chapter 43 of the laws of 1989, is amended and a new para-
31 graph (c) is added to read as follows:

32 (a) The term "employees" includes but is not restricted to any indi-
33 vidual employed by a labor organization; any individual whose employment
34 has ceased as a consequence of, or in connection with, any current labor 35 dispute or because of any unfair labor practice, and who has not 36 obtained any other regular and substantially equivalent employment; and 37 shall not be limited to the employees of a particular employer, unless 38 the article explicitly states otherwise, but shall not include any indi-39 vidual employed by his parent or spouse or in the domestic service of 40 and directly employed, controlled and paid by any person in his home,
41 any individual whose primary responsibility is the care of a minor child 42 or children and/or someone who lives in the home of a person for the 43 purpose of serving as a companion to a sick, convalescing or elderly
44 person or any individuals employed only for the duration of a labor
45 dispute, [~~or any individuals employed as farm laborers~~] or[,] any indi-
46 vidual who participates in and receives rehabilitative or therapeutic 47 services in a charitable non-profit rehabilitation facility or sheltered
48 workshop or any individual employed in a charitable non-profit rehabili-49 tation facility or sheltered workshop who has received rehabilitative or 4 twenty-four consecutive hours of rest in each and every calendar week.

5 This requirement shall not apply to the parent, child, spouse or other

7 hours spent at rest because of circumstances, such as weather or crop 8 conditions, shall be deemed to constitute the rest required by this 9 paragraph. No provision of this paragraph shall prohibit a farm laborer 10 from voluntarily agreeing to work on such day of rest required by this 11 paragraph, provided that the farm laborer is compensated at an overtime
12 rate which is at least one and one-half times the laborer's regular rate
13 of pay for all hours worked on such day of rest. The term "farm labor" 14 shall include all services performed in agricultural employment in 15 connection with cultivating the soil, or in connection with raising or 16 harvesting of agricultural commodities, including the raising, shearing, 17 caring for and management of livestock, poultry or dairy. The day of 18 rest authorized under this subdivision should, whenever possible, coin-19 cide with the traditional day reserved by the farm laborer for religious

1 employee organization or from the expiration date of a collective 2 bargaining agreement.

3 2. Upon impasse, agricultural employers or recognized employee organ-

25 parties is to share equally the cost of the neutral arbitrator. If, 26 within seven days after the mailing date, the parties are unable to 27 agree upon the neutral arbitrator, the board shall submit to the parties
28 a list of qualified, disinterested persons for the selection of a
29 neutral arbitrator. Each party shall alternately strike from the list 30 one of the names with the order of striking determined by lot, until the 31 remaining one person shall be designated as the neutral arbitrator. This 32 process shall be completed within five days of receipt of this list. The 33 parties shall notify the board of the designated neutral arbitrator;

34 ii. the neutral arbitrator shall hold hearings on all matters related 35 to the dispute. The parties may be heard either in person, by counsel, 36 or by other representatives, as they may respectively designate. The 37 panel may grant more than one adjournment each for each party; provided, 38 however, that a second request of either party and any subsequent 39 adjournments may be granted on request of either party, provided that 40 the party which requests the adjournment shall pay the arbitrator's fee.
41 The parties may present, either orally or in writing, or both, state-42 ments of fact, supporting witnesses and other evidence, and argument of 43 their respective positions with respect to each case. The arbitrator 44 shall have authority to require the production of such additional 45 evidence, either oral or written as she or he may desire from the 46 parties and shall provide at the request of either party that a full and
