AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to discrimination based on an employee's or a dependent's reproductive health decision making

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 203-e to 2 read as follows:

3 § 203-e. Prohibition of discrimination based on an employee's or a 4 dependent's reproductive health decision making. 1. An employer shall be 5 prohibited from accessing an employee's personal information regarding 6 the employee's or the employee's dependent's reproductive health deci-
7 sion making, including but not limited to, the decision to use or access 8 a particular drug, device or medical service without the employee's 9 prior informed affirmative written consent.

10 2. An employer shall not:

11 (a) discriminate nor take any retaliatory personnel action against an 12 employee with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges

1 of employment because of or on the basis of the employee's or depen-
2 dent's reproductive health decision making, including, but not limited 3 to, a decision to use or access a particular drug, device or medical 4 service; or

5 (b) require an employee to sign a waiver or other document which 6 purports to deny an employee the right to make their own reproductive 7 health care decisions, including use of a particular drug, device, or 8 medical service.

9 3. An employer that provides an employee handbook to its employees
10 must include in the handbook notice of employee rights and remedies
11 under this section.

12 4. An employee may bring a civil action in any court of competent 13 jurisdiction against an employer alleged to have violated the provisions 14 of this section. In any civil action alleging a violation of this 15 section, the court may:

16 (a) award damages, including, but not limited to, back pay, benefits
17 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred to a prevailing plain-18 tiff;

19 (b) afford injunctive relief against any employer that commits or 20 proposes to commit a violation of the provisions of this section;

21 (c) order reinstatement; and/or

22 (d) award liquidated damages equal to one hundred percent of the award 23 for damages pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision unless an 24 employer proves a good faith basis to believe that its actions in 25 violation of this section were in compliance with the law.

26 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit any rights of 27 an employee provided through any other provision of law, common law or 28 collective bargaining unit.

29 6. Any act of retaliation for an employee exercising any rights grant-30 ed under this section shall subject an employer to separate civil penal-31 ties under this section. For the purposes of this section, retaliation 32 or retaliatory personnel action shall mean discharging, suspending, 33 demoting, or otherwise penalizing an employee for:

34 (a) making or threatening to make, a complaint to an employer,
35 co-worker, or to a public body, that rights guaranteed under this 36 section have been violated;

37 (b) causing to be instituted any proceeding under or related to this 38 section; or

39 (c) providing information to, or testifying before, any public body
40 conducting an investigation, hearing, or inquiry into any such violation 41 of a law, rule, or regulation by such employer.

42 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
