IN SENATE

September 20, 2019

Introduced by Sen. CARLUCCI -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the family court act, in relation to factoring domestic violence convictions into family court decisions regarding visitation, custody and parental rights and establishing the batterer intervention program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraphs (vii) and (viii) of subdivision (a) of section
2 1046 of the family court act, paragraph (vii) as amended by chapter 432 3 of the laws of 1993, paragraph (viii) as added by chapter 1015 of the 4 laws of 1972, are amended and a new paragraph (ix) is added to read as 5 follows:

6 (vii) neither the privilege attaching to confidential communications
7 between husband and wife, as set forth in section forty-five hundred two 8 of the civil practice law and rules, nor the physician-patient and 9 related privileges, as set forth in section forty-five hundred four of 10 the civil practice law and rules, nor the psychologist-client privilege, 11 as set forth in section forty-five hundred seven of the civil practice 12 law and rules, nor the social worker-client privilege, as set forth in 13 section forty-five hundred eight of the civil practice law and rules, 14 nor the rape crisis counselor-client privilege, as set forth in section 15 forty-five hundred ten of the civil practice law and rules, shall be a 16 ground for excluding evidence which otherwise would be admissible[~~-~~]; 17 and

18 (viii) proof of the "impairment of emotional health" or "impairment of 19 mental or emotional condition" as a result of the unwillingness or 20 inability of the respondent to exercise a minimum degree of care toward 21 a child may include competent opinion or expert testimony and may 22 include proof that such impairment lessened during a period when the 15 of section 135.60 of the penal law between spouses or former spouses, or 16 between parent and child or between members of the same family or house-17 hold except that if the respondent would not be criminally responsible 18 by reason of age pursuant to section 30.00 of the penal law, shall be 19 taken into consideration for any hearing deciding on the visitation,

20 custody, or rights of a parent with mandatory, batterer specific rehabi-
21 litative measures of no less than twelve months, successfully completed 22 by the respondent prior to a final judgment; provided, however, that in 23 a case where a party seeking custody and/or visitation with a child 24 under the jurisdiction of the family court has a prior criminal 25 conviction for any enumerated family offense under section eight hundred 26 twelve of this act, absent extraordinary circumstances, the non-offend-27 ing parent shall be granted temporary custody during the pendency of the 28 case; visitation with the offending parent shall be supervised by a 29 party designated by the court; and the offending parent shall attend and 30 successfully complete a minimum twenty-six week batterer intervention 31 program or sessions with a court approved counselor.

32 § 2. The family court act is amended by adding a new section 842-b to 33 read as follows:

34 § 842-b. Batterer intervention program. 1. As part of a final order of 35 protection pursuant to section eight hundred forty-two of this part, the 36 court may order the defendant to receive professional domestic violence 37 counseling from either a private source or a source appointed by the 38 court, and in such event, require the defendant to provide the court 39 with documentation of attendance.

40 2. Such batterer intervention program shall include, but not be limit-41 ed to, the following components:

42 (a) periodic, ongoing risk assessments to protect the safety of the 43 victim and any children;

44 (b) offender accountability for their acts of domestic violence as a 45 central component of the program, requiring that offenders be held 46 accountable for their behavior, and provided with services geared 47 towards behavioral change;

48 (c) information and education concerning the tactics of power and 49 control and the understanding of domestic violence as a domination and 50 control issue;

51 (d) a swift and certain compliance protocol, including a prompt and 52 effective review by the court for noncompliance; and

53 (e) regular reviews of the program and compliance audits by the courts 54 and designated domestic violence advocacy groups.

55 § 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 56 have become a law.
