Introduced by Sens. GOUNARDES, BIAGGI, KRUEGER, LIU -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the definition of "employer" for purposes of the human rights law

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 5 of section 292 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 161 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:
5. The term "employer" shall include all employers within the state. For the purposes of this article, the state of New York shall be considered an employer of any employee or official of the New York state executive, legislature, or judiciary, including persons serving in any judicial capacity, and persons serving on the staff of any elected official in New York state.
§ 2. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as chapter 161 of the laws of 2019, takes effect; provided, however, if this act shall have become a law after such date it shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after the effective date of chapter 161 of the laws of 2019 .
