Introduced by Sen. KAVANAGH -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the private housing finance law, in relation to persons and families in company projects who are required to pay a rental surcharge

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 31 of the private housing finance law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2019, amending the private housing finance law relating to the aggregate annual income of low income persons or families eligible for accommodations in a company project, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S.4133 and A.5350, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The dwelling or non-housekeeping accommodations without board in a company project shall be available for persons or families of low income whose probable aggregate annual income at the time of admission and during the period of occupancy does not exceed, the greater of (i) the median income for such persons or families for the metropolitan statistical area in which the project is located, or if a project is located outside a metropolitan statistical area, the median income for such persons or families for the county in which the project is located, as most recently determined by the United States department of housing and urban development, in which case any person or family becoming eligible for admission pursuant to this subparagraph shall pay, from the time of admission, a rental surcharge as provided for in subdivision three of this section, computed on the basis of the income limitations applicable to such persons or families in the absence of this subparagraph, or (ii) eight times the rental, including the value or cost to them of heat, light, water and cooking fuel, of the dwellings that may be furnished to such persons or families, except that in the case of families with three or more dependents, such ratio shall not exceed nine to one. Persons or families with two or less dependents eligible for admission or continued occupancy pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph or subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph prior to the effective date of a chapter of EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 the laws of two thousand nineteen that amended subparagraph (ii) of this 2 paragraph, shall pay a rental surcharge computed on the basis of an 3 income limitation of seven times the rental and families with three or 4 more dependents eligible for admission or continued occupancy pursuant 5 to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph or subparagraph (ii) of this 6 paragraph prior to the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two 7 thousand nineteen that amended subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph,
8 shall pay a rental surcharge computed on the basis of an income limita-
9 tion of eight times the cost of the rental, including in each instance 10 the value or cost to the persons or families of heat, light, water and 11 cooking fuel, of the dwellings furnished to such persons or families.

12 The "probable aggregate annual income" in the case of dwelling accom-
13 modations means the annual income of the chief wage earner of the fami-14 ly, plus all other income of other members of the family over the age of 15 twenty-one years, plus a proportion of income of gainfully employed 16 members under the age of twenty-one years, the proportion to be deter-17 mined by the company as approved by the commissioner or the supervising 18 agency, as the case may be, excluding therefrom a deduction of fifteen 19 thousand dollars from the income of secondary wage earners of the family 20 or a larger deduction if approved by the commissioner or the supervising 21 agency, as the case may be, except that the company, as approved by the 22 commissioner or the supervising agency, as the case may be, may exclude 23 a proportion of the income of other members of the family over the age 24 of twenty-one years for the purpose of determining eligibility for 25 admission or continued occupancy, or for establishing the rental of such 26 family, or for all such purposes; in the case of such non-housekeeping 27 accommodations it means the annual income of the occupant, provided that 28 the commissioner or supervising agency, as the case may be, may make 29 rules and regulations relative to the allocation of the income of a 30 family among the members thereof for the purpose of determining the 31 income attributable to such occupant.

32 § 2. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same
33 manner as a chapter of the laws of 2019, amending the private housing 34 finance law relating to the aggregate annual income of low income 35 persons or families eligible for accommodations in a company project, as 36 proposed in legislative bills numbers S.4133 and A.5350, takes effect.
