1 (c) a resident or patient of a veterang health administration hospi 2 tal; or 3 (d) absent from his or her voting residence because he or she is detained in jail awaiting action by a grand jury or awaiting trial, or 4 5 confined in jail or prison after a conviction for an offense other than б a felony, provided that he or she is qualified to vote in the election 7 district of his or her residence.] Any person who is registered to vote 8 and deemed a qualified voter may vote by absentee ballot. 9 2. A qualified voter desiring to vote at such election as an absentee voter [for any reason specified in subdivision one hereof] must make 10 11 application for an absentee ballot on a form to be obtained and filed as 12 provided herein or by letter as provided in paragraph (d) of this subdi-13 vision. 14 (a) Application forms shall be furnished by and may be obtained from 15 any board of elections at any time until the day before such election. 16 Application forms shall also be supplied by the board of inspectors of 17 the election district in which applicant is a qualified voter on all of the days provided for local registration. In addition, application forms 18 shall be supplied upon the request of the person authorized to vote 19 20 pursuant to this section, any such person's spouse, parent or child, a 21 person residing with the applicant as a member of his household, or the applicant's duly authorized agent. Application forms sent outside of the 22 United States to a country other than Canada or Mexico, shall be sent 23 airmail. Any reference to "board of elections" in the remaining 24 25 provisions of this section, except with respect to the furnishing and 26 obtaining of applications for absentee ballots, means only the board of 27 elections of the county or city in which the applicant is a qualified 28 voter. 29 (b) Applications may be filed either with the board of elections or in 30 person with the board of inspectors of the election district in which 31 the applicant is a qualified voter, on one of the days provided for 32 local registration. 33 (c) All applications must be mailed to the board of elections not 34 later than the seventh day before the election for which a ballot is 35 first requested or delivered to such board not later than the day 36 [before] of such election. 37 The board of elections shall mail an absentee ballot to every (d) 38 qualified voter otherwise eligible for such a ballot, who requests such an absentee ballot from such board of elections in writing in a letter, 39 telefax indicating the address, phone number and the telefax number from 40 which the writing is sent or other written instrument, which is signed 41 42 by the voter and received by the board of elections not earlier than the 43 thirtieth day nor later than the seventh day before the election for which the ballot is first requested and which states the address where 44 45 the voter is registered and the address to which the ballot is to be 46 mailed; provided, however, a military voter may request a military 47 ballot or voter registration application or an absentee ballot application in a letter as provided in subdivision three of section 10-106 of 48 this chapter; and provided further, a special federal voter may request 49 50 a special federal ballot or voter registration application or an absen-51 tee ballot application in a letter as provided in paragraph d of subdi-52 vision one of section 11-202 of this chapter. The board of elections 53 shall enclose with such ballot a form of application for absentee ballot 54 if the applicant is registered with such board of elections. 55 3. The application for an absentee ballot when filed must contain in 56 each instance the following information:

(a) Applicant's full name, date of birth, and residence address, 1 including the street and number, if any, rural delivery route, if any, 2 mailing address if different from the residence address and his or her 3 town or city and an address to which the ballot shall be mailed. 4 5 (b) A statement that the applicant is a qualified and registered б voter. 7 (c) [A statement, as appropriate, that on the day of such election the 8 applicant expects in good faith to be in one of the following catego-9 ries: (i) absent from the county of his or her residence, or if a resident 10 11 of the city of New York absent from said city; provided, however, if the applicant expects to be absent from such county or city for a duration 12 13 covering more than one election and seeks an absentee ballot for each 14 election, he or she shall state the dates when he or she expects to begin and end such absence; or 15 (ii) unable to appear at a polling place because of illness or phys-16 17 ical disability or dutics related to the primary care of one or more individuals who are ill or physically disabled; or 18 (iii) a resident or patient of a veterans health administration hospi-19 20 tal; or 21 (iv) detained in jail awaiting action by a grand jury or awaiting trial or confined in jail or prison after a conviction for an offense 22 other than a felony and stating the place where he or she is so detained 23 or confined. 24 25 (d) Such application shall permit the applicant to apply for an 26 absentee ballot for either a primary election or the general election in any year [and for those persons who will be continuously absent from 27 their county of residence during the period between the fall primary 28 29 election and the general election in any year to apply for ballots for both such elections in such year]. A voter who applies for an absentee 30 31 ballot shall be sent an absentee ballot for any special election or winter primary that occurs during the period [of absence] specified in 32 33 the application. [4. A voter who claims permanent illness or physical disability may 34 make application for an absentee ballot and the right to receive an 35 absentee ballot for each election thereafter as provided herein without 36 further application, by filing with the board of elections an applica-37 tion which shall contain a statement to be executed by the voter. Upon 38 filing of such application the board of elections shall cause the regis-39 tration records of the voter to be marked "Permanently Disabled" and 40 thereafter shall send an absentee ballot for each succeeding primary, 41 special or general election to such voter at his or her last known 42 address by first class mail with a request to the postal authorities not 43 to forward such ballot but to return it in five days in the event that 44 45 it cannot be delivered to the addressee. The mailing of such ballot for 46 each election shall continue until such voter's registration ia 47 cancelled. § 2. Article 8 of the election law is amended by adding a new title 6 48 49 to read as follows: 50 TITLE VI 51 RIGHT TO A FINAL VOTE 52 Section 8-600. Right to a final vote. 53 § 8-600. Right to a final vote. Before his or her vote is counted in 54 an election any voter who has voted by absentee ballot or other early voting procedure shall have the right to cast a ballot on election day 55 56 that would negate such earlier vote.
