Introduced by Sen. MAYER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to employer notice requirements for the closing of a plant

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 860-c of the labor law, as added by chapter 475 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

1. In the case of a plant closing, an employer is not required to comply with the notice requirement in subdivision one of section eight hundred sixty-b of this article if:

- (a) [(i) at the time the notice would have been required, the employer was actively seeking capital or business; and
- (ii) the capital or business sought, if obtained, would have enabled the employer to avoid or postpone the relocation or termination; and
- (iii) the employer reasonably and in good faith believed that giving the notice required by subdivision one of section eight hundred sixty-b 12 of this article would have precluded the employer from obtaining the 13 needed capital or business;
- (b) the need for a notice was not reasonably foreseeable at the time 14 15 the notice would have been required;
  - (a) the plant closing is of a temporary facility or the plant closing or mass layoff is the result of the completion of a particular project or undertaking, and the affected employees were hired with the understanding that their employment was limited to the duration of the facility or project or undertaking;
- $[\frac{(d)}{(d)}]$  the plant closing or mass layoff is due to any form of 21 22 natural disaster, such as a flood, earthquake, or drought; or
