plan including but not limited to a listing of available licensed 1 substance abuse programs to provide for the care and treatment of offen-2 3 ders sentenced in accordance with the provisions of subdivision one of 4 section 60.14 of the penal law. The report must also include any other 5 [imformation] information that the court directs to be included and the б material required by paragraph (b) of this subdivision which shall be 7 considered part of the report. 8 § 3. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 60.14 to read as 9 follows: 10 § 60.14 Authorized depositions; criminal possession of a controlled 11 substance. The sentence of any person convicted of a violation of section 12 1. 13 220.03 of this chapter, criminal possession of a controlled substance in 14 the seventh degree, section 220.06 of this chapter, criminal possession of a controlled substance in the fifth degree, or section 221.20 of this 15 16 chapter, criminal possession of marihuana in the third degree, for 17 either the first or second time who has no prior conviction for any of the other provisions of article two hundred twenty of this chapter and 18 also has no prior violent felony conviction shall be conditionally 19 20 discharged provided such person agrees to attend, and successfully 21 completes an alternative program of substance abuse treatment approved in accordance with section two hundred forty-nine-a of the executive 22 23 law. 2. The court shall impose such a sentence on the condition that the 24 25 offender participate in a substance abuse treatment alternative program 26 for a specified period of time as determined by the court. 27 3. Upon completion of a course of treatment, the court shall terminate the sentence in accordance with the provisions of section 410.90 of the 28 29 criminal procedure law. If the court determines that the offender 30 absconded from the substance abuse treatment alternative program or that 31 the sentence is no longer suitable because it endangers the safety, 32 security or order of such treatment facility or that the offender other-33 wise violates the terms and conditions of the sentence, the sentence may 34 be revoked. Upon revocation, the offender shall be sentenced in accord-35 ance with the other provisions of this chapter applicable to persons convicted of criminal possession of a controlled substance or criminal 36 37 possession of marihuana, as the case may be. 38 4. The court shall conduct an ongoing evaluation of the program. The court shall undertake studies in conjunction with the division of 39 probation and correctional alternatives, the division of parole and the 40 office of alcoholism and substance abuse services to ensure that the 41 42 programmatic objectives are met. 43 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 44 it shall have become a law.
