§ 15.11. Express warranties. Information provided pursuant to the provisions of this article shall create an express warranty pursuant to section 13.05 of this title. When such information is not supplied because not applicable, this shall constitute an express warranty that such required information is not applicable. This section shall not apply to an authenticator's opinion or information concerning a visual art multiple or work of fine art, as set forth in subdivision twenty-three of section 11.01 of this title, section 15.12 of this article, and subdivision four of section 15.15 of this article.

§ 3. The arts and cultural affairs law is amended by adding a new section 15.12 to read as follows:

§ 15.12. Authentication of works of fine art and visual art multiples. In any civil action brought against an authenticator that arises from or relates to the authenticator's opinion or information concerning a visual art multiple or work of fine art, the claimant shall specify with particularity in the complaint facts sufficient to support each element of the claim or claims asserted.

§ 4. Subdivisions 4 and 5 of section 15.15 of the arts and cultural affairs law, as added by chapter 849 of the laws of 1984, are amended to read as follows:

4. (a) In any action to enforce any provision of this article, other than a civil action brought against an authenticator that arises from or relates to the authenticator's opinion or information concerning a visual art multiple or work of fine art, the court may allow the prevailing purchaser the costs of the action together with reasonable attorneys' and expert witnesses' fees.

(b) In any civil action brought against an authenticator that arises from or relates to the authenticator's opinion or information concerning a visual art multiple or work of fine art, the court may allow the prevailing authenticator the costs of the action together with reasonable attorneys' and expert witnesses' fees, provided, however, that no such costs or fees shall be granted pursuant to this section except upon a written finding of good and just cause, which shall specify the grounds thereof.

(c) In the event, however, the court determines that an action to enforce any provision of this article was brought in bad faith it may allow such expenses to the art merchant as it deems appropriate; provided, however, that in any civil action brought against an authenticator that arises from or relates to the authenticator's opinion or information concerning a visual art multiple or work of fine art, no such expenses shall be assessed or allowed against the authenticator.

5. An action to enforce any liability under this article, but not including civil actions against authenticators, shall be brought within the period prescribed for such actions by article two of the uniform commercial code.

§ 5. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law and shall apply to all opinions as to the authenticity, attribution or authorship of a work of fine art or visual art multiple provided to someone other than the authenticator after such effective date.
