AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the attendance of minors upon full day instruction and the conditions under which districts, including the city school district of the city of New York, are entitled to an apportionment of state aid and the closure of schools due in response to the novel coronavirus, COVID-19

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 7 of section 3604 of the education law, as amended by chapter 605 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

7. No district shall be entitled to any portion of such school moneys on such apportionment unless the report of the trustees or board of education for the preceding school year shall show that the public schools were actually in session in the district and taught by a qualified teacher or by successive qualified teachers or by qualified teachers for not less than one hundred eighty days. The moneys payable to a 10 school district pursuant to section thirty-six hundred nine-a of this part in the current year shall be reduced by one one-hundred eightieth 12 of the district's total foundation aid for the base year for each day less than one hundred eighty days that the schools of the district were actually in session, except that the commissioner may disregard such 14 15 reduction in the apportionment of public money $[\tau]$: (i) for any day or 16 days on which session had been previously scheduled but the superinten-17 dent was required to close the school or schools due to a properly 18 executed declaration of a state or local state of emergency pursuant to article two-B of the executive law; or (ii) for up to five days if he or 20 she finds that the schools of the district were not in session for one 21 hundred eighty days because of extraordinarily adverse weather condi-
