accrue against a county under section nine hundred thirty-six, nine hundred seventy-six, or thirteen hundred thirty of the real property tax law, shall be waived insofar as such liability is created by such taxing jurisdiction's decision to defer or reduce taxes or special ad valorem levies under this section.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, applicable to all real property for the period beginning March seventh, two thousand twenty, and ending on the date on which none of the restrictions constituting New York On PAUSE, as defined by Executive Order 202.31, continue to apply in the county where the real property is located, and after a public hearing, the legislative body of any village, town, city, or county may adopt a local law, or a school district may adopt a resolution, providing that tax payments or special ad valorem levies normally due to such taxing jurisdiction may be separated into as many installment payments as are necessary to provide financial relief to taxpayers in such jurisdiction; provided however, that such local law or resolution shall set dates certain for such payments, and shall not impose any additional obligation on taxpayers for not paying any portion of taxes earlier than would normally be due under the taxing jurisdiction's normal schedule; and provided further, that any liability which would normally accrue against a county under section nine hundred thirty-six, nine hundred seventy-six, or thirteen hundred thirty of the real property tax law, shall be waived insofar as such liability is created by such taxing jurisdiction's decision to defer taxes under this section.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
