LBD89124-02-9

Any new legislation, amendment to legislation, or limitation on the effect of any legislation contained in any bill submitted under this section shall be separately stated, in a manner to enable the legislature and the governor to act in relation to that matter under section 4 of this article.

The governor and the heads of departments shall have the right, and it shall be the duty of the heads of departments when requested by either house of the legislature or an appropriate committee thereof, to appear and be heard in respect to the budget during the consideration thereof, and to answer inquiries relevant thereto. The procedure for such appearances and inquiries shall be provided by law.

§ 3. Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That section 4 of article 7 of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

§ 4. The legislature may [~~not~~] alter an appropriation bill submitted by the governor [~~except~~] to strike out or reduce items therein, [~~but it may~~] to add thereto items of appropriation, or to modify or substitute items of appropriation (including adding, deleting, modifying or substituting any new legislation, amendment to legislation, or limitation on the effect of any legislation); provided that such additions, modifications, and substitutions are stated separately and distinctly from the original items of the bill and refer each to a single object or purpose. [~~None of the restrictions of this section, however, shall apply to appropriations for the legislature or judiciary.~~]

Such an appropriation bill shall when passed by both houses be a law immediately without further action by the governor, except that appropriations for the legislature and judiciary and separate items added to and modifications or substitutions of the governor's bills by the legislature shall be subject to approval of the governor and action by the legislature as provided in section 7 of article IV. Provided, however, that where a modification or substitution by the legislature is a deletion of new legislation, of an amendment to legislation or of a limitation on the effect of any legislation submitted by the governor under this article, it shall not be subject to approval of the governor.

§ 4. Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That section 5 of article 7 of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

§ 5. [~~Neither house of the~~] The legislature [~~shall~~] may consider any other bill making an appropriation [~~until all~~] whether or not it has acted on the appropriation bills submitted by the governor [~~shall have been finally acted on by both houses, except on message from the governor certifying to the necessity of the immediate passage of such a bill~~].

§ 6. Except for appropriations contained in the bills submitted by the governor and in a supplemental appropriation bill for the support of government, no appropriations shall be made except by separate bills each for a single object or purpose. All such bills and such supplemental appropriation bill shall be subject to the governor's approval and action by the legislature as provided in section 7 of article IV.

No provision shall be embraced in any appropriation bill submitted by the governor or in such supplemental appropriation bill unless it relates specifically to some particular appropriation in the bill, and any such provision shall be limited in its operation to such appropriation.

Any new legislation, amendment to legislation, or limitation on the effect of any legislation contained in a supplemental appropriation bill under this section shall be separately stated, in a manner to enable the legislature and the governor to act in relation to that matter under section 7 of article IV, and shall be subject to the governor's approval and action by the legislature as provided in section 7 of article IV.

§ 6. Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That the foregoing amendments be referred to the first regular legislative session convening after the next succeeding general election of members of the assembly, and, in conformity with section 1 of article 19 of the constitution, be published for 3 months previous to the time of such election.
