AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to eliminating the powers of the governor to issue any directive necessary to respond to a state disaster

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 29-a of the executive law, as amended by chapter 23 2 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 29-a. Suspension of other laws. 1. Subject to the state constitu-3 tion, the federal constitution and federal statutes and regulations, the governor may by executive order temporarily suspend any statute, local law, ordinance, or orders, rules or regulations, or parts thereof, of 7 any agency during a state disaster emergency, if compliance with such provisions would prevent, hinder, or delay action necessary to cope with the disaster or if necessary to assist or aid in coping with such disaster. [The governor, by executive order, may issue any directive during a 10 11 state disaster emergency declared in the following instances: fire, 12 flood, earthquake, hurricane, tornado, high water, landslide, mudslide, 13 wind, storm, wave action, volcanic activity, epidemic, disease outbreak, 14 air contamination, terrorism, cyber event, blight, drought, infestation, 15 explosion, radiological accident, nuclear, chemical, biological, or 16 bacteriological release, water contamination, bridge failure or bridge 17 collapse. Any such directive must be necessary to cope with the disaster 18 and may provide for procedures reasonably necessary to enforce such 19 directive.

- 2. Suspensions pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall be subject to the following standards and limits[ , which shall apply to any 22 directive where specifically indicated]:
- a. no suspension [or directive] shall be made for a period in excess 23 24 of thirty days, provided, however, that upon reconsideration of all of 25 the relevant facts and circumstances, the governor may extend the suspension for additional periods not to exceed thirty days each;

b. no suspension [er directive] shall be made which is not in the interest of the health or welfare of the public and which is not reasonably necessary to aid the disaster effort; 3

- c. any such suspension order shall specify the statute, local law, ordinance, order, rule or regulation or part thereof to be suspended and the terms and conditions of the suspension;
- d. the order may provide for such suspension only under particular circumstances, and may provide for the alteration or modification of the requirements of such statute, local law, ordinance, order, rule or regulation suspended, and may include other terms and conditions;
- e. any such suspension order [or directive] shall provide for the 12 minimum deviation from the requirements of the statute, local law, ordinance, order, rule or regulation suspended consistent with the goals of the disaster action deemed necessary; and
- 15 f. when practicable, specialists shall be assigned to assist with the 16 related emergency actions to avoid needless adverse effects resulting 17 from such suspension.
  - 3. Such suspensions [or directives] shall be effective from the time and in the manner prescribed in such orders and shall be published as soon as practicable in the state bulletin.
- 21 4. The legislature may terminate by concurrent resolution executive 22 orders issued under this section at any time.
- § 2. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 23 24 the amendments to section 29-a of the executive law made by section one 25 of this act shall not affect the expiration of such section and shall be 26 deemed to expire therewith.
