AN ACT to amend the state finance law, in relation to increasing the amount of the award to a person who initiates a qui tam action where such action includes disclosure of information related to the use of government funds during a state of emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision 6 of section 190 of 2 the state finance law, as amended by section 9-b of part A of chapter 56 3 of the laws of 2013, are amended to read as follows:

3 (a) If the attorney general elects to convert the qui tam civil action into an attorney general enforcement action, or to permit a local government to convert the action into a civil enforcement action by such 7 local government, or if the attorney general or a local government elects to intervene in the qui tam civil action, then the person or 9 persons who initiated the qui tam civil action collectively shall be 10 entitled to receive between fifteen and twenty-five percent of the 11 proceeds recovered in the action or in settlement of the action. The court shall determine the percentage of the proceeds to which a person 12 13 commencing a qui tam civil action is entitled, by considering the extent 14 to which the plaintiff substantially contributed to the prosecution of 15 the action. Where the court finds that the action was based primarily on disclosures of specific information (other than information provided by the person bringing the action) relating to allegations or transactions 17 in a criminal, civil or administrative hearing, in a legislative or 18 administrative report, hearing, audit or investigation, or from the news 19 20 media, the court may award such sums as it considers appropriate, but in 21 no case more than ten percent of the proceeds, taking into account the 22 significance of the information and the role of the person or persons 23 bringing the action in advancing the case to litigation. Where the court 24 finds that the action was based on disclosure of specific information 25 related to the use of government funds during a declaration of a state 26 of emergency, the court shall increase the percentage of the proceeds to

1 which the person commencing such qui tam civil action is entitled by up to five percent more than the maximum percentage allowed pursuant to this paragraph. Any such person shall also receive an amount for reason-3 able expenses that the court finds to have been necessarily incurred, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs pursuant to article eighty-one of the civil practice law and rules. All such expenses, fees, and costs 7 shall be awarded against the defendant.

(b) If the attorney general or a local government does not elect to intervene or convert the action, and the action is successful, then the person or persons who initiated the qui tam action which obtains proceeds shall be entitled to receive between twenty-five and thirty percent of the proceeds recovered in the action or settlement of the action. The court shall determine the percentage of the proceeds to 14 which a person commencing a qui tam civil action is entitled, by considering the extent to which the plaintiff substantially contributed to the 16 prosecution of the action. Where the court finds that the action was based on disclosure of specific information related to the use of government funds during a declaration of a state of emergency, the court shall increase the percentage of the proceeds to which the person 20 commencing such qui tam civil action is entitled by up to ten percent more than the maximum percentage allowed pursuant to this paragraph. Such person shall also receive an amount for reasonable expenses that the court finds to have been necessarily incurred, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs pursuant to article eighty-one of the civil practice law and rules. All such expenses, fees, and costs shall be awarded against the defendant.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
