- 2. The judgment shall not bar an action to recover the possession of real property. The judgment shall not bar an action, proceeding or counterclaim, commenced or interposed within sixty days of entry of the judgment, for affirmative equitable relief which was not sought by counterclaim in the proceeding because of the limited jurisdiction of the court. No judgment for possession shall be entered from rent owed by a tenant that is a small business, as defined by section one hundred thirty-one of the economic development law, between March seventh, two thousand twenty and a date six months after the expiration of the state disaster emergency, as such term is defined in section twenty of the executive law, declared pursuant to executive order two hundred two of two thousand twenty, as amended.
- § 3. The real property actions and proceedings law is amended by adding a new section 712 to read as follows:
- § 712. Grounds where landlord-tenant relationship exists; special proceedings for rent due from small businesses during the COVID-19 pandemic. As used in this section, a "tenant" shall mean a tenant that is a small business, as defined by section one hundred thirty-one of the economic development law. No tenant shall be removed from possession in a special proceeding maintained under this article upon the grounds of this section. A special proceeding for a judgment of rent due may be maintained where the tenant has defaulted in the payment of rent, pursuant to the agreement under which the premises are held, where such rent was due between March seventh, two thousand twenty and a date six months after the expiration of the state disaster emergency, as that term is defined in section twenty of the executive law, declared pursuant to executive order two hundred two of two thousand twenty, as amended, and a written demand of the rent has been made with at least fourteen days' notice requiring the payment of the rent, served upon the tenant as prescribed in section seven hundred thirty-five of this article. Any person succeeding to the landlord's interest in the premises may proceed under this section for rent due his or her predecessor in interest for the time period specified above if he or she has a right thereto.
 - § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
