S. 8596--A 2

19. Any person who resides in this state and who is currently employed as a member of the police force employed on or before January first, two thousand twenty-one, a paid member of the uniformed force of a paid fire 3 department or department of corrections in the correctional service classification of the classified civil service, of a city of over one million population, shall be exempt from the provisions of subdivisions 7 one, two and nine of this section upon compliance with the procedure set forth in this subdivision. Any person seeking to benefit from the 9 exemption created by this subdivision shall notify his respective employer in writing of said intention within thirty days from the effec-10 tive date of this subdivision and shall specify his or her then current 11 residence address. The exemption created by this subdivision shall be 12 13 applicable only to said actual designated residence and not to any resi-14 dence that any subject currently employed member may thereafter estab-15 lish; provided, however, that any such currently employed member who resides outside this state shall have one year from the effective date of this subdivision within which to establish residence as required pursuant to subdivisions one, two and nine of this section and comply 17 18 with the notice requirements of this subdivision. Said residence shall 19 20 constitute a lawful residence for all purposes notwithstanding any 21 provision to the contrary of any general, special or local law, charter, 22 code, ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation. Such exemption shall not apply to paid members of the police force in a city with a popu-23 24 lation of one million or more after January first, two thousand twenty-25 two. Beginning January first, two thousand twenty-one, no person shall 26 be appointed a paid member of the police force in a city with a popu-27 lation of one million or more that does not reside in a political subdi-28 vision or municipal corporation of such city for which he or she shall be chosen for one year prior to being appointed and continues to reside 29 30 therein.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
