IN SENATE

June 22, 2020

Introduced by Sen. PARKER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to residency requirements for police officers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 3 of the public officers law, as 2 amended by chapter 1004 of the laws of 1966, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 2. Neither the provisions of this section or of any general, special 5 or local law, charter, code, ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation, 6 requiring a person to be a resident of the political subdivision or 7 municipal corporation of the state for which he or she shall be chosen 8 or within which his or her official functions are required to be exer-
9 cised, shall apply to the appointment on or before January first, two 10 thousand twenty-one of a person as a member of the police force of any 11 political subdivision or municipal corporation of the state if such 12 person resides (a) in the county in which such political subdivision or 13 municipal corporation is located; or (b) in a county within the state 14 contiguous to the county in which such political subdivision or municipi-15 pal corporation is located; or (c) in a county within the state contig-16 uous to such political subdivision or municipal corporation; or (d) in a 17 county within the state contiguous to a county described in item (c) 18 hereof where the former is less than fifteen miles from such political 19 subdivision or municipal corporation, measured from their respective 20 nearest boundary lines; or (e) in a county within the state contiguous 21 to a county described in item (d) hereof where the former is less than 22 thirty miles from such political subdivision or municipal corporation,
23 measured from their respective nearest boundary lines. Provided, howev-
24 er, such exemption shall not apply to paid members of a police force 25 after January first, two thousand twenty-two. Beginning January first, 26 two thousand twenty-one, no person shall be appointed a paid member of 27 any police force that does not reside in the political subdivision or

1 municipal corporation of the state for which he or she shall be chosen
2 for one year prior to being appointed and continues to reside therein.

3 § 2. Subdivision 19 of section 3 of the public officers law, as added 4 by chapter 509 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

5 19. Any person who resides in this state and who is currently employed
6 as a member of the police force employed on or before January first, two 7 thousand twenty-one, a paid member of the uniformed force of a paid fire
8 department or department of corrections in the correctional service
9 classification of the classified civil service, of a city of over one 10 million population, shall be exempt from the provisions of subdivisions 11 one, two and nine of this section upon compliance with the procedure set 12 forth in this subdivision. Any person seeking to benefit from the 13 exemption created by this subdivision shall notify his or her respective 14 employer in writing of said intention within thirty days from the effec-15 tive date of this subdivision and shall specify his or her then current 16 residence address. The exemption created by this subdivision shall be 17 applicable only to said actual designated residence and not to any resi-
18 dence that any subject currently employed member may thereafter estab-19 lish; provided, however, that any such currently employed member who 20 resides outside this state shall have one year from the effective date 21 of this subdivision within which to establish residence as required
22 pursuant to subdivisions one, two and nine of this section and comply 23 with the notice requirements of this subdivision. Said residence shall 24 constitute a lawful residence for all purposes notwithstanding any 25 provision to the contrary of any general, special or local law, charter, 26 code, ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation. Such exemption shall 27 not apply to paid members of the police force in a city with a popu-
28 lation of one million or more after January first, two thousand twenty-29 two. Beginning January first, two thousand twenty-one, no person shall 30 be appointed a paid member of the police force in a city with a popu-31 lation of one million or more that does not reside in the political 32 subdivision or municipal corporation of the state for which he or she 33 shall be chosen for one year prior to being appointed and continues to 34 reside therein.

35 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
