Introduced by Sen. KAVANAGH -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to antimicrobial resistance prevention and education

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section
2 2803-z to read as follows:

3 § 2803-z. Antimicrobial resistance prevention and education. 1. Every 4 general hospital and nursing home shall establish and implement an anti-5 microbial stewardship program that meets or exceeds federal Medicare and 6 Medicaid conditions of participation for antimicrobial stewardship 7 programs in health care facilities. Additionally, such program shall 8 incorporate an ongoing process to measure the impact of the program,
9 including review, at least annually, of antimicrobial utilization data 10 with development of response plans for high or increasing utilization.

11 2. Every general hospital and nursing home shall establish and imple-
12 ment training regarding antimicrobial resistance and infection
13 prevention and control, or ensure that such training has taken place, in 14 addition to or within existing infection control training programs, for 15 all individuals licensed or certified pursuant to title eight of the 16 education law and who are required to complete coursework or training 17 regarding infection control pursuant to section two hundred thirty-nine 18 of this chapter or section sixty-five hundred five-b of the education 19 law.

20 3. The commissioner shall make such rules and regulations as may be 21 necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of this section.

22 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 23 have become a law. Effective immediately any rules and regulations
24 necessary to implement the provisions of this act on its effective date 25 are authorized to be made and completed on or before such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
