8867--A

IN SENATE

August 3, 2020

- Introduced by Sen. SANDERS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee
- AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to requiring regulations directing the state university of New York and the city university of New York to establish courses of study on ethnic studies, women's studies, and social justice

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 208-b
2	to read as follows:
3	§ 208-b. Courses on ethnic studies, women's studies, and social
4	justice. 1. The commissioner and the board of regents are authorized
5	and directed to establish rules and/or regulations requiring each insti-
6	tution of higher learning in New York state to provide for courses in
7	ethnic studies, women's studies, and social justice in each of its
8	campuses and requiring, as an undergraduate graduation requirement,
9	completion of, at a minimum, one three-credit course in ethnic studies,
10	women's studies, or social justice. Such requirement shall not increase
11	the number of units required to graduate from the institution with a
12	baccalaureate degree. Such graduation requirement shall not apply to a
13	postbaccalaureate student who is enrolled in a baccalaureate degree
14	program at an institution of higher learning if the student has satis-
15	fied either of the following:
16	(a) The student has earned a baccalaureate degree from an institution
17	accredited by a regional accrediting agency.
18	(b) The student has completed an ethnic studies, women's studies, or
19	social justice course at a postsecondary educational institution accred-
20	ited by a regional accrediting agency.
21	2. The commissioner and the board of regents are authorized and
22	directed to develop core competencies to be achieved by students who
23	complete an ethnic studies, women's studies, or social justice course

24 pursuant to subdivision one of this section. Such core competencies

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

S. 8867--A

1	shall be intended to ensure that students of institutions of higher
2	learning in New York acquire the knowledge and skills that will help
3	them comprehend the diversity and social justice history of the United
4	States and of the society in which they live to enable such students to
5	contribute to society as responsible and constructive citizens.
б	3. For the purposes of this section, "ethnic studies" shall mean an
7	interdisciplinary and comparative study of race and ethnicity with
8	special focus on four historically defined racialized core groups:
9	Native Americans, African Americans, Asian Americans, and Latina and
10	Latino Americans.
11	§ 2. The education law is amended by adding a new section 6204-b to
12	read as follows:
13	§ 6204-b. Courses on ethnic studies, women's studies, and social
14	justice. 1. The city university is authorized and directed to establish
15	rules and/or regulations requiring each institution of the city univer-
16	sity to provide for courses in ethnic studies, women's studies, and
17	social justice in each of its campuses and requiring, as an undergradu-
18	ate graduation requirement, completion of, at a minimum, one three-cre-
19	dit course in ethnic studies, women's studies, or social justice. Such
20	requirement shall not increase the number of units required to graduate
21	from the city university with a baccalaureate degree. Such graduation
22	requirement shall not apply to a postbaccalaureate student who is
23	enrolled in a baccalaureate degree program at the city university if the
24	student has satisfied either of the following:
25	(a) The student has earned a baccalaureate degree from an institution
26	accredited by a regional accrediting agency.
27	(b) The student has completed an ethnic studies, women's studies, or
28	social justice course at a postsecondary educational institution accred-
29	ited by a regional accrediting agency.
30	2. The city university is authorized and directed to develop core
31	competencies to be achieved by students who complete an ethnic studies,
32	women's studies, or social justice course pursuant to subdivision one of
33	this section. Such core competencies shall be intended to ensure that
34	students of the city university acquire the knowledge and skills that
35	will help them comprehend the diversity and social justice history of
36	the United States and of the society in which they live to enable such
37	students to contribute to society as responsible and constructive citi-
38	zens.
39	3. For the purposes of this section, "ethnic studies" shall mean an
40	interdisciplinary and comparative study of race and ethnicity with
41	special focus on four historically defined racialized core groups:
42	Native Americans, African Americans, Asian Americans, and Latina and
43	Latino Americans

43 Latino Americans.
44 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
