to the public service law, the public authorities law, and/or the state administrative procedure act, the public service commission, in consultation with the New York state energy research and development authority, shall adopt a program within one year of the effective date of this section to provide support to and for eligible renewable hydrogen and, at a greater rate, eligible curtailed renewable hydrogen, through a proceeding to engage stakeholders in order to design and implement a competitive program for eligible renewable hydrogen production for the purpose of meeting the state's clean energy and greenhouse emissions reductions targets. The program shall require:

- 11 1. administration by the New York state energy research and develop- 12 ment authority;
- 2. a diversity of project sizes, geographic distribution, and participation among customer classes, subject to cost-effectiveness considerations;
- 3. incentive or financing structures that maximize cost-effectiveness and practicality through competitive procurements, standing-offers, production incentives or capacity incentives at the wholesale or retail level as, in the judgment of the commission, provide for the most effective program;
- 4. program designs that take into consideration the avoidance of longterm costs to the transmission and distribution system and minimization of peak load in constrained areas;
- 24 5. annual reports on the achievements and effectiveness of the 25 program; and
- 26 6. such other issues deemed appropriate by the commission.
- 27 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
