Where change of such [~~salesman's~~] salesperson's association is the basis for such termination, the [~~salesman's~~] salesperson's successor broker shall forthwith notify the department of such change in such manner as the department shall prescribe, such notice to be accompanied by a fee of one dollar. No real estate [~~salesman~~] salesperson shall perform any act within any of the prohibitions of this article from and after the termination for any cause of [~~his~~] their association until [~~he~~] they thereafter shall have become associated with a licensed real estate broker.

§ 442-c. Violations by [~~salesmen~~] salespersons; broker's responsibility. No violation of a provision of this article by a real estate [~~salesman~~] salesperson or employee of a real estate broker shall be deemed to be cause for the revocation or suspension of the license of the broker, unless it shall appear that the broker had actual knowledge of such violation or retains the benefits, profits or proceeds of a transaction wrongfully negotiated by [~~his salesman~~] their salesperson or employee after notice of the [~~salesman's~~] salesperson's or employee's misconduct. A broker shall be guilty of a misdemeanor for having any [~~salesman~~] salesperson associated with [~~his~~] their firm who has not secured the required license authorizing such employment.

§ 15. Section 442-d of the real property law, as amended by chapter 324 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read as follows:

§ 442-d. Actions for commissions; license prerequisite. No person, copartnership, limited liability company or corporation shall bring or maintain an action in any court of this state for the recovery of compensation for services rendered, in any place in which this article is applicable, in the buying, selling, exchanging, leasing, renting or negotiating a loan upon any real estate without alleging and proving that such person was a duly licensed real estate broker or real estate [~~salesman~~] salesperson on the date when the alleged cause of action arose.

§ 16. Subdivision 5 of section 442-e of the real property law, as added by chapter 468 of the laws of 1940, is amended to read as follows:

5. The secretary of state shall have the power to enforce the provisions of this article and upon complaint of any person, or on [~~his~~]

their own initiative, to investigate any violation thereof or to investigate the business, business practices and business methods of any person, firm or corporation applying for or holding a license as a real estate broker or [~~salesman~~] salesperson, if in the opinion of the secretary of state such investigation is warranted. Each such applicant or licensee shall be obliged, on request of the secretary of state, to supply such information as may be required concerning [~~his~~] their or its business, business practices or business methods, or proposed business practices or methods.

§ 17. Subdivisions 1, 4, and 6 of section 442-g of the real property law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 744 of the laws of 1978, subdivision 4 as amended by chapter 482 of the laws of 1963, and subdivision 6 as added by section 2 of part D of chapter 328 of the laws of 2014, are amended to read as follows:

1. A nonresident of this state may become a real estate broker or a real estate [~~salesman~~] salesperson by conforming to all of the provisions of this article, except that a nonresident broker regularly engaged in the real estate business as a vocation who is licensed and maintains a definite place of business in another state, which offers the same privileges to the licensed brokers of this state, shall not be required to maintain a place of business within this state. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, if any state prohibits or restricts the right of a resident of this state to become a licensed nonresident real estate broker or [~~salesman~~] salesperson, then the issuance of such a license to an applicant resident in such state shall be similarly restricted. The department of state shall recognize the license issued to a real estate broker or [~~salesman~~] salesperson by another state as satisfactorily qualifying [~~him~~] them for license as broker or [~~salesman~~] salesperson, as the case may be, under this section; provided that the laws of the state of which [~~he is~~] they are a resident require that applicants for licenses as real estate brokers and [~~salesmen~~] salespersons shall establish their competency by written examinations but permit licenses to be issued to residents of the State of New York duly licensed under this article, without examination. If the applicant is a resident of a state which has not such requirement then the applicant must meet the examination requirement as provided herein and the department of state shall issue a license to such nonresident broker or [~~salesman~~] salesperson upon payment of the license fee and the filing by the applicant with the department of a certified copy of the applicant's license issued by such other state.

4. The secretary of state shall promptly send one of such copies by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the nonresident broker or nonresident [~~salesman~~] salesperson at the post office address of [~~his~~] their main office as set forth in the last application filed by him or her.

6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, the department of state shall grant a real estate broker or a real estate [~~salesman~~] salesperson license to an applicant who is a member of the household of a member of the armed forces of the United States, national guard or reserves and was a member of such household before such member of the armed forces relocated to the state who submits satisfactory evidence of licensure, certification or registration to practice an equivalent occupation issued by a state, territory, protectorate or dependency of the United States, provided that such license, certification or certificate of registration was current and effective within one year of the date of the individual's application for licensure in

New York, was granted in compliance with standards that are, in the judgment of the secretary, no less rigorous than those required for licensure in New York. If such standards for licensure, certification or registration are deemed by the secretary to be less rigorous than those required for licensure in New York, the secretary shall permit an applicant to submit evidence in a form acceptable to the department of state to demonstrate the applicant's competency and trustworthiness. If such evidence is sufficient in the judgment of the secretary, the secretary shall grant a real estate broker or real estate salesperson license.

§ 18. Paragraph j of subdivision 1 of section 443 of the real property law, as amended by chapter 549 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

§ 19. This act shall take effect immediately.
