37 transaction wrongfully negotiated by [~~his-salesman~~] their salesperson or 38 employee after notice of the [~~salesman's~~] salesperson's or employee's 39 misconduct. A broker shall be guilty of a misdemeanor for having any 7 supply such information as may be required concerning [~~his~~] their or its 8 business, business practices or business methods, or proposed business

10 § 17. Subdivisions 1, 4, and 6 of section 442-g of the real property

15 1. A nonresident of this state may become a real estate broker or a

18 engaged in the real estate business as a vocation who is licensed and 19 maintains a definite place of business in another state, which offers 20 the same privileges to the licensed brokers of this state, shall not be 21 required to maintain a place of business within this state. Anything to 22 the contrary herein notwithstanding, if any state prohibits or restricts 23 the right of a resident of this state to become a licensed nonresident 24 real estate broker or [~~salesman~~] salesperson, then the issuance of such 25 a license to an applicant resident in such state shall be similarly 26 restricted. The department of state shall recognize the license issued 27 to a real estate broker or [~~salesman~~] salesperson by another state as 28 satisfactorily qualifying [~~him~~] them for license as broker or [~~salesman~~] 29 salesperson, as the case may be, under this section; provided that the 30 laws of the state of which [~~he is~~] they are a resident require that 31 applicants for licenses as real estate brokers and [~~salesmen~~] salesper-
32 sons shall establish their competency by written examinations but permit 33 licenses to be issued to residents of the State of New York duly 34 licensed under this article, without examination. If the applicant is a 35 resident of a state which has not such requirement then the applicant
36 must meet the examination requirement as provided herein and the depart-37 ment of state shall issue a license to such nonresident broker or 38 [~~salesman~~] salesperson upon payment of the license fee and the filing by 39 the applicant with the department of a certified copy of the applicant's 40 license issued by such other state.

41 4. The secretary of state shall promptly send one of such copies by 42 registered mail, return receipt requested, to the nonresident broker or 43 nonresident [~~salesman~~] salesperson at the post office address of [~~his~~] 44 their main office as set forth in the last application filed by him or 45 her.

46 6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, the depart-47 ment of state shall grant a real estate broker or a real estate [~~sales-~~
48 ~~man~~] salesperson license to an applicant who is a member of the house-49 hold of a member of the armed forces of the United States, national 50 guard or reserves and was a member of such household before such member 51 of the armed forces relocated to the state who submits satisfactory 52 evidence of licensure, certification or registration to practice an 53 equivalent occupation issued by a state, territory, protectorate or 54 dependency of the United States, provided that such license, certifi-55 cation or certificate of registration was current and effective within 56 one year of the date of the individual's application for licensure in

1 New York, was granted in compliance with standards that are, in the 2 judgment of the secretary, no less rigorous than those required for 3 licensure in New York. If such standards for licensure, certification or 4 registration are deemed by the secretary to be less rigorous than those 5 required for licensure in New York, the secretary shall permit an appli-
6 cant to submit evidence in a form acceptable to the department of state 7 to demonstrate the applicant's competency and trustworthiness. If such 8 evidence is sufficient in the judgment of the secretary, the secretary 9 shall grant a real estate broker or real estate salesperson license.

10 § 18. Paragraph j of subdivision 1 of section 443 of the real property 11 law, as amended by chapter 549 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read 12 as follows:

13 j. "Designated sales agent" means a licensed real estate [~~salesman~~] 14 salesperson or associate broker, working under the supervision of a real 15 estate broker, who has been assigned to represent a client when a 16 different client is also represented by such real estate broker in the 17 same transaction.

18 § 19. This act shall take effect immediately.
