AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to exempting from sales and compensating use taxes and establishing a tax credit for any equipment or product purchased by a small business that is used to comply with a COVID-19 health and safety plan

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision (a) of section 1115 of the tax law is amended by adding a new paragraph 46 to read as follows:

(46) Any equipment or product, including materials used in the construction of physical barriers, including but not limited to plastic shielding walls, strip curtains, cubicle walls, plexiglass or similar materials, or other impermeable dividers or partitions, purchased by a small business doing business in this state that is directly used by such small business to be in compliance with a COVID-19 health and safety plan. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "small business" shall mean a business with one hundred or fewer employees.

§ 2. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 55 to read as follows:

55. Sales tax paid on materials for COVID-19 health and safety plan compliance. (1) For the period beginning May fifteenth, two thousand twenty and ending on the effective date of this subdivision, a taxpayer who owns a small business shall be allowed a credit for sales tax paid for any equipment or product, including materials used in the construction of physical barriers, including but not limited to plastic shielding walls, strip curtains, cubicle walls, plexiglass or similar materials, or other impermeable dividers or partitions, purchased by such small business in order to be in compliance with a COVID-19 health and safety plan.

(2) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year shall exceed the small business's tax for such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "small business" shall mean a business with one hundred or fewer employees.

§ 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (kkk) to read as follows:

(kkk) Sales tax paid on materials for COVID-19 health and safety plan compliance. (1) For the period beginning May fifteenth, two thousand twenty and ending on the effective date of this subsection, a taxpayer who owns a small business shall be allowed a credit for sales tax paid for any equipment or product, including materials used in the construction of physical barriers, including but not limited to plastic shielding walls, strip curtains, cubicle walls, plexiglass or similar materials, or other impermeable dividers or partitions, purchased by such small business in order to be in compliance with a COVID-19 health and safety plan.

(2) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.

(3) For purposes of this subsection, the term "small business" shall mean a business with one hundred or fewer employees.

§ 4. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xlvi) to read as follows:

(xlvi) Sales tax paid on materials for COVID-19 health and safety plan compliance under subsection (kkk) and safety plan compliance under subdivision fifty-five of section two hundred ten-B

§ 5. This act shall take effect on the first day of the sales tax quarterly period commencing after this act shall have become a law, and shall apply to sales made and uses occurring on and after such date in accordance with applicable transitional provisions of sections 1106 and 1217 of the tax law; provided that the commissioner of taxation and finance shall be authorized on and after the date this act shall have become a law to take steps necessary to implement the provisions of this act on its effective date.
