1 ble, electronically or otherwise and to make such image or images avail-
2 able to the public.

3 2. The following provisions shall apply to sections 250.71, 250.72 and 4 250.73 of this article:

5 (a) The provisions of these sections shall not apply to the following:

6 (i) the reporting of unlawful conduct;

7 (ii) the dissemination or publication of an image made during lawful 8 and common practices of law enforcement, legal proceedings or medical 9 treatment;

10 (iii) images involving activities in a public setting or activities in 11 a commercial setting in which legal activities are being conducted; or

12 (iv) the dissemination or publication of an image made for a legiti-13 mate public purpose.

14 (b) Nothing in these sections shall be construed to limit, or to 15 enlarge, the protections that 47 U.S.C. § 230 confers on an interactive
16 computer service for content provided by another information content
17 provider, as such terms are defined in 47 U.S.C. § 230.

18 § 250.71 Unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the third degree.

19 A person is guilty of unlawful dissemination of a personal image in 20 the third degree when, with the intent of humiliating, demeaning,
21 degrading or abusing a person who has been the victim of an offense
22 described in title H of this part, or otherwise causing harm to the 23 emotional, financial or physical welfare of such victim or such victim's 24 family, or when, for his or her own, or another person's amusement, 25 entertainment or profit, he or she intentionally:

26 1. (a) creates and disseminates or publishes a still or video image of 27 such victim, without the victim's consent, in a manner that has no or 28 limited cultural or social value; and

29 (b) the victim is identifiable from the still or video image itself or 30 from information displayed in connection with the still or video image; 31 and

32 (c) the image depicts the commission of the offense against the victim
33 or physical injury suffered by the victim as a result of the commission 34 of the offense; or

35 2. acting as an agent of a person who creates an image as described in 36 subdivision one of this section, he or she disseminates or publishes 37 such image.

38 Unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the third degree is a 39 class B misdemeanor.

40 § 250.72 Unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the second 41 degree.

42 A person is guilty of unlawful dissemination of a personal image in 43 the second degree when he or she commits the offense of unlawful dissem-44 ination of a personal image in the third degree and:

45 1. he or she committed, participated in the commission of, or 46 conspired to commit the offense against the victim; or

47 2. the victim suffered serious physical injury which is depicted in 48 the unlawfully disseminated image; or

49 3. he or she has been convicted within the previous ten years of 50 unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the third degree.

51 Unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the second degree is a 52 class A misdemeanor.

53 § 250.73 Unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the first degree.

54 A person is guilty of dissemination of an unlawful dissemination of a 55 personal image in the first degree when he or she commits the offense of 56 unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the third degree and:

1 1. he or she committed, participated in the commission of, or
2 conspired to commit an offense described in article one hundred twenty-3 five of this chapter against the victim; or

4 2. the victim suffered death or serious physical injury as a result of 5 the application of deadly physical force and such injury, death or the 6 application of deadly physical force is depicted in the unlawfully 7 disseminated image; or

8 3. he or she has been convicted within the previous ten years of 9 unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the second degree.

10 Unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the first degree is a 11 class E felony.

12 § 2. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new section 52-c to 13 read as follows:

14 § 52-c. Private right of action for unlawful dissemination or publica-
15 tion of a personal image. 1. Any person depicted in a still or video 16 image which was unlawfully disseminated as provided in section 250.71, 17 250.72 or 250.73 of the penal law shall have a cause of action against 18 an individual who disseminated or published, or threatened to dissem-19 inate or publish, such still or video image without the consent of the 20 person depicted in the image.

21 2. In any action commenced pursuant to subdivision one of this 22 section, the finder of fact, in its discretion, may award injunctive
23 relief, punitive damages, compensatory damages and reasonable court
24 costs and attorney's fees.

25 3. This section shall not apply to the following:

26 a. the reporting of unlawful conduct;

27 b. the dissemination or publication of an image made during lawful and 28 common practices of law enforcement, legal proceedings or medical treat-29 ment;

30 c. images involving activities in a public setting or activities in a 31 commercial setting in which legal activities are being conducted; or

32 d. the dissemination or publication of an image made for a legitimate 33 public purpose.

34 4. Any person depicted in a still or video image which was unlawfully 35 disseminated as provided in section 250.71, 250.72 or 250.73 of the 36 penal law may maintain an action or special proceeding for a court order 37 to require any website that is subject to personal jurisdiction under 38 subdivision five of this section to permanently remove such still or 39 video image; any such court order granted pursuant to this subdivision 40 may direct removal only as to images that are reasonably within such 41 website's control.

42 5. Any website that hosts or transmits a still or video image, view-43 able in this state, which was unlawfully disseminated as provided in 44 section 250.71, 250.72 or 250.73 of the penal law and which image is 45 hosted or transmitted without the consent of the person depicted in the 46 image, shall be subject to personal jurisdiction in a civil action in 47 this state to the maximum extent permitted under the United States
48 constitution and federal law.

49 6. A cause of action or special proceeding under this section shall be 50 commenced the later of either:

51 a. three years after the dissemination or publication of an image; or

52 b. one year from the date a person discovers, or reasonably should 53 have discovered, the dissemination or publication of such image.

54 7. Nothing herein shall be read to require a prior criminal complaint, 55 prosecution or conviction to establish the elements of the cause of 56 action provided for by this section.

1 8. The provisions of this section are in addition to, but shall not 2 supersede, any other rights or remedies available in law or equity.

3 9. If any provision of this section or its application to any person
4 or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other 5 provisions or applications of this section which can be given effect 6 without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the 7 provisions of this section are severable.

8 10. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit, or to
9 enlarge, the protections that 47 U.S.C. § 230 confers on an interactive
10 computer service for content provided by another information content
11 provider, as such terms are defined in 47 U.S.C. § 230.

12 § 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 13 have become a law.
