1 the state oversight body with jurisdiction over such person. A state
2 oversight body acting pursuant to its jurisdiction, may, in lieu of a 3 civil penalty, with respect to a violation of subdivisions two through 4 five, seven or eight of this section, refer a violation of any such 5 subdivision to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such conviction such 6 violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor.

7 § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 2825 of the public authorities law, as 8 amended by chapter 766 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as 9 follows:

10 1. No public officer or employee shall be ineligible for appointment
11 as a trustee or member of the governing body of a state or local author-
12 ity, as defined in section two of this chapter, and any public officer 13 or employee may accept such appointment and serve as such trustee or 14 member without forfeiture of any other public office or position of 15 public employment by reason thereof. Provided, additionally no state-16 wide elected official, state officer or employee, member of the legisla-
17 ture, legislative employee or political party chairman or firm or asso-
18 ciation of which such person is a member, or corporation, ten per centum 19 or more of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indi-
20 rectly by such person, shall receive compensation for legal fees, 21 consulting, or any other contractual expenditure for services, whether 22 actually performed or not, from a state or local authority.

23 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
