IN ASSEMBLY

March 4, 2020

Introduced by M. of A. TAYLOR -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to establishing the office of the law enforcement inspector general; and making an appropriation therefor

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new article 11-A
2	to read as follows:
3	ARTICLE 11-A
4	OFFICE OF THE LAW ENFORCEMENT INSPECTOR GENERAL
5	Section 233. Definitions.
6	234. Establishment and organization.
7	235. Jurisdiction.
8	236. Powers and duties.
9	237. Annual reports.
10	238. Disclosure of information.
11	§ 233. Definitions. For purposes of this article, the following terms
12	shall have the following meanings:
13	1. "Inspector" shall mean the law enforcement inspector general
14	created by this article.
15	2. "Intelligence operations" shall mean the variety of intelligence
16	and counterintelligence tasks that are carried out by law enforcement
17	and intelligence agencies, which shall include but not be limited to
18	analysis and production; collection; dissemination and integration;
19	evaluation and feedback; planning and direction; and processing and
20	exploitation of information collected from targeted individuals or
21	groups.
22	3. "Intelligence agencies" shall mean any government agencies respon-
23	sible for the collection, analysis or exploitation of information and
24	intelligence in support of law enforcement, national security, defense
25	and homeland security objectives.

1	principle functions of prevention, detection, and investigation of crime
2	and the apprehension of alleged offenders.
3	§ 234. Establishment and organization. 1. There is hereby established
4	the office of the law enforcement inspector general in the executive
5	department. The head of the office shall be the inspector who shall be
6	appointed by the governor, by and with the advise and consent of the
7	senate.
8	2. The inspector shall hold office for a term of five years.
9	3. The inspector shall report directly to the governor.
10	4. Such person appointed as inspector shall, upon his or her appoint-
11	ment, have not less than ten years professional experience in areas of
12^{11}	law enforcement and law enforcement training, provided the experience
13
	involves expertise in intelligence operations.
14 15	5. Such person appointed as inspector shall be subject to a security
15	clearance investigation by a federal government agency authorized to
16	perform such investigations.
17	6. The salary of the inspector shall not exceed the salary of certain
18	state officers as defined in section one hundred sixty-nine of this
19	chapter.
20	§ 235. Jurisdiction. This article shall, subject to the limitations
21	contained herein, confer upon the office of the law enforcement inspec-
22	tor general jurisdiction over all covered agencies. For the purposes of
23	this article "covered agency" shall include all state and local govern-
24	ment law enforcement and intelligence agencies, including the division
25	of homeland security and emergency services, engaged in intelligence
26	operations.
27	§ 236. Powers and duties. 1. General. (a) The inspector shall make
28	any investigation of the covered agencies directed by the governor, or
29	the senate and the assembly acting by joint resolution.
30	(b) The inspector is authorized and empowered to make any study or investigations authorized by this chapter. The inspector may also 1 appoint such directors, assistants and other officers and employees as 2 3 may be needed for the performance of his or her duties and may prescribe their duties and fix their compensation with the amounts appropriated 4 5 therefor. б 2. Investigations. (a)(i) For the purpose of ascertaining facts in 7 connection with any study or investigation authorized by this chapter, 8 the inspector and each deputy shall have full power to compel the 9 attendance of witnesses, including but not limited to the power to issue 10 subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum, to administer oaths and to examine 11 such persons as he or she may deem necessary. (ii) The inspector shall have the power to require the production of 12 any books and papers deemed relevant or material to any investigation, 13 14 examination or review. 15 (iii) The inspector shall have the power, notwithstanding any law to 16 the contrary, to examine and copy or remove documents or records of any kind prepared, maintained or held by any covered agency. The removal of 17 18 such records shall be limited to those circumstances, at the discretion 19 of the inspector, in which a copy thereof is insufficient for an appro-20 priate legal or investigative purpose, provided in such instances the 21 copying and return of such original, or copy where the original is required for an appropriate legal or investigative purpose, is expedited 22 and such original or copy is readily accessible by the covered agency. 23 24 (b) The inspector or any agent or employee of the office duly desig-25 nated in writing by him or her for such purposes may administer oaths or 26 affirmations, examine witnesses in public or private hearing, receive 27 evidence and preside at or conduct any such study or investigation. 3. Reports. The inspector shall forward to the governor, and to the 28 29 temporary president of the senate and speaker of the assembly, the minority leaders of the senate and assembly, the chairs of the senate 30 31 and assembly standing committees on investigations, the commandant of 32 the state police, the commissioner of the New York police department and 33 the attorney general of New York state, a copy of all reports prepared 34 by the inspector and his or her agents and employees concerning the 35 affairs, functions, accounts, methods, personnel or efficiency of any covered agency, upon issuance by the commissioner. 36 37 § 237. Annual reports. 1. The inspector shall, no later than March 38 thirty-first of each year submit to the governor and the legislature a report summarizing the activities of the office during the preceding 39 40 calendar year. 2. (a) The inspector shall not publicly disclose information which: 41 42 (i) is a part of any ongoing criminal investigation; 43 (ii) compromises an intelligence operation; 44 (iii) is specifically prohibited from disclosure by any other 45 provision of law. 46 (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, any report 47 under this section shall be made available to the public in a form which 48 includes information with respect to a part of an ongoing criminal investigation only if such information has been included in a public 49 50 record. 51 § 238. Disclosure of information. The inspector shall not disclose 52 information which is prohibited from disclosure by any other provision 53 of law. 54 § 2. The sum of ten million dollars ($10,000,000), or so much thereof 55 as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to the office of the law 56 enforcement inspector general out of any moneys in the state treasury in
