AN ACT to amend the elder law, the executive law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to incorporating identity theft into the definition of elder abuse for purposes of support services and programs for elder persons

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 209 of the elder law is amended by adding a new paragraph (i) to read as follows:

(i) "Elder abuse or exploitation" shall mean any knowing or intentional act by a person which causes harm or a serious risk of harm to an older adult including physical, emotional, sexual, or financial harm, or harm related to identity theft, or neglect, abandonment or confinement.

§ 2. Subdivision 16 of section 202 of the elder law, as added by chapter 455 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

16. to the extent appropriations are available, and in consultation with the office of children and family services, conduct a public education campaign that emphasizes zero-tolerance for elder abuse. Such campaign shall include information about the signs and symptoms of elder abuse, identification of potential causes of elder abuse, resources available to assist in the prevention of elder abuse, where suspected elder abuse can be reported, contact information for programs offering services to victims of elder abuse such as counseling, and assistance with arranging personal care and shelter. Such campaign may include, but not be limited to: printed educational and informational materials; audio, video, electronic, other media; and public service announcements or advertisements. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "elder abuse" shall have the same meaning as the term "Elder abuse or exploitation" as set forth in paragraph (i) of subdivision one of section two hundred nine of this title.

§ 3. Subdivision 1 of section 215 of the elder law is amended by adding a new paragraph (f) to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
