- 1. Every gas corporation, every electric corporation and every munici-5 pality shall furnish and provide such service, instrumentalities and facilities as shall be safe and adequate and in all respects just and reasonable. All charges made or demanded by any such gas corporation, electric corporation or municipality for gas, electricity or any service rendered or to be rendered, shall be just and reasonable and not more 10 than allowed by law or by order of the commission. Every unjust or 11 unreasonable charge made or demanded for gas, electricity or any such 12 service, or in connection therewith, or in excess of that allowed by law 13 or by the order of the commission is prohibited. No gas corporation or electric corporation shall increase rates and charges by more than two percent as measured on an annual basis.
- § 2. Paragraphs 2 and 4 of subdivision (u) of section 1020-f of the 17 public authorities law, as added by section 7 of part A of chapter 173 of the laws of 2013, are amended to read as follows:
- 18 19 2. The authority and the service provider shall thereafter submit for 20 review to the department of public service any rate proposal that would 21 increase the rates and charges [and thus increase the aggregate revenues 22 of the authority by more than two and one half]. Such rate proposal 23 shall not provide for an increase of such rates and charges by more than 24 two percent to be measured on an annual basis[ reprovided, however, that 25 the authority may place such rates and charges into effect on an interim 26 basis, subject to prospective rate adjustment; provided, further, that a 27 final rate plan issued by the authority that would not so increase such

1 rates and charges shall not be subject to the requirements of paragraph four of this subdivision and shall be considered final for the purposes of review under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and 4 rules. The authority and/or the service provider may otherwise submit for review to such department any rate proposal irrespective of its effect on revenues ].

4. Any recommendations associated with a rate proposal submitted 7 8 pursuant to paragraphs one and two of this subdivision shall be provided 9 by the department of public service to the board of the authority imme-10 diately upon their finalization by the department. Unless the board of 11 the authority makes a preliminary determination in its discretion that any particular recommendation is inconsistent with the authority's sound 12 13 fiscal operating practices, any existing contractual or operating obli-14 gations, or the provision of safe and adequate service, the board shall 15 implement such recommendations as part of its final rate plan and such 16 final determination shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of this 17 subdivision and be considered final for the purposes of review under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. 18 19 shall not approve a final rate plan that increases rates and charges by 20 more than two percent. The board shall make any such preliminary deter-21 mination of inconsistency within thirty days of receipt of such recom-22 mendations, with notice and the basis of such determination being provided to the department of public service, and contemporaneously 23 24 posted on the websites of the authority and its service provider. The 25 board shall thereafter, within thirty days of such posting and with due 26 advance notice to the public, hold a public hearing with respect to its 27 preliminary determination of inconsistency. At such hearing, the depart-28 ment of public service shall present the basis for its recommendations, 29 the board shall present the basis for its determination of inconsistency 30 and the service provider may present its position. The authority and the 31 service provider may, during the time period before such public hearing 32 reach agreement with the department on disputed issues. Within thirty 33 days after such public hearing, the board of the authority shall 34 announce its final determination and planned implementation with respect 35 to any such recommendations. The authority's final determination of 36 inconsistency shall be subject to any applicable judicial review 37 proceeding, including review available under article seventy-eight of 38 the civil practice law and rules.

39 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 40 have become a law.
