IN ASSEMBLY

March 24, 2020

Introduced by M. of A. JACOBSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to requiring that certain sellers of real property provide a certificate of occupancy to the purchaser of the real property

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 2 259 to read as follows:
- § 259. Certificates of occupancy; required disclosure to purchaser. 1.

 4 Prior to executing a deed of sale with a purchaser or prospective

 5 purchaser of real property, the owner of the real property shall provide

 6 the purchaser or prospective purchaser, or the agent of the purchaser or

 7 prospective purchaser, with a copy of a certificate of occupancy for the

 8 real property that is the subject of the deed of sale. Such certificate

 9 shall have been issued within thirty days of the date of transfer of
- 10 ownership on the property.
 11 2. The provisions of this section shall not apply to transfers of real
 12 property:
- 13 (a) to a relative of the owner;
- 14 (b) made pursuant to a court order, including but not limited to
 15 transfers by a referee in a foreclosure action, to a party in a divorce
 16 proceeding or by a bankruptcy trustee in a bankruptcy or reorganization
- 17 proceeding;

18

- (c) by a municipality;
- 19 (d) by an executor or administrator of an estate;
- 20 (e) by a beneficiary of an estate provided such transfer is made with-
- 21 in sixty days of the date on which the beneficiary acquired title to the 22 property;
- 23 (f) by a deed in lieu of foreclosure;
- 24 (g) due to the operation of law pursuant to a deed, including but not
- 25 limited to a tax deed; or
- 26 (h) of real property that does not have a dwelling located thereon.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
