46 a. A good faith complaint, by or in behalf of the tenant, to the land-
47 lord, the landlord's agent or a governmental authority of the landlord's 48 alleged violation of any health or safety law, regulation, code, or 49 ordinance, the warranty of habitability under section two hundred thir-
50 ty-five-b of this article, the duty to repair under sections seventy-51 eight, seventy-nine, and eighty of the multiple dwelling law or section 52 one hundred seventy-four of the multiple residence law, or any law or Retaliation shall be asserted as an affirmative defense in such action or proceeding. The tenant shall not be relieved of the obligation to pay any rent for which he is otherwise liable.

5. In an action or proceeding instituted against a tenant of premises or a unit to which this section is applicable, a rebuttable presumption that the landlord is acting in retaliation shall be created if the tenant establishes that the landlord served a notice to quit, or instituted an action or proceeding to recover possession, or attempted to substantially alter the terms of the tenancy, within one year after:

a. A good faith complaint was made, by or in behalf of the tenant, to the landlord, the landlord's agent or a governmental authority of the landlord's violation of any health or safety law, regulation, code, or ordinance, the warranty of habitability under section two hundred thirty-five-b of this article, the duty to repair under sections seventy-eight, seventy-nine, and eighty of the multiple dwelling law or section one hundred seventy-four of the multiple residence law, or any law or regulation which has as its objective the regulation of premises used for dwelling purposes or which pertains to the offense of rent gouging in the third, second or first degree; or

2 the United States which has as its objective the regulation of premises
3 used for dwelling purposes or which pertains to the offense of rent
4 gouging in the third, second or first degree.

5 c. Judgment under subdivision three or four of this section was 6 entered for the tenant in a previous action between the parties; or an 7 inspection was made, an order was entered, or other action was taken as 8 a result of a complaint or act described in paragraph a or b of this 9 subdivision.

10 d. The tenant failed to pay all or a portion of rent due between March 11 seventh, two thousand twenty and a date six months after the expiration 12 of the state disaster emergency, as that term is defined in section 13 twenty of the executive law, declared pursuant to executive order two 14 hundred two of two thousand twenty, as amended.

15 The effect of the presumption shall be to require the landlord to 16 establish a non-retaliatory motive for his acts by a preponderance of 17 the evidence.

18 6. This section shall apply to all rental residential premises except 19 owner-occupied dwellings with less than four units. However, its 20 provisions, other than paragraph d of subdivision one of this section, 21 shall not be given effect in any case in which it is established that 22 the condition from which the complaint or action arose was caused by the 23 tenant, a member of the tenant's household, or a guest of the tenant.
24 Nor shall it apply in a case where a tenancy was terminated pursuant to 25 the terms of a lease as a result of a bona fide transfer of ownership.

5 state minimum hourly wage prescribed in section six hundred fifty-two of 6 the labor law as in effect at the time the earnings are payable, which-7 ever is less; (iv) if the earnings of the judgment debtor are also 8 subject to deductions for alimony, support or maintenance for family 9 members or former spouses pursuant to section five thousand two hundred 10 forty-one or section five thousand two hundred forty-two of this arti-11 cle, the amount withheld from the judgment debtor's earnings pursuant to 12 this section shall not exceed the amount by which twenty-five percent of 13 the disposable earnings of the judgment debtor for that week exceeds the 14 amount deducted from the judgment debtor's earnings in accordance with 15 section five thousand two hundred forty-one or section five thousand two 16 hundred forty-two of this article. Nothing in this section shall be 17 construed to modify, abrogate, impair, or affect any exemption from the 18 satisfaction of a money judgment otherwise granted by law.
