Introduced by M. of A. WEPRIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to establishing emergency release protocols during a time of crisis

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 807 2 to read as follows:
- § 807. Emergency release during a time of crisis. 1. During an epidemic, a natural disaster, a climate disaster, a war or other similar emergency which places the lives, health or well-being of people in custody at risk, the commissioner shall have the authority to release to community supervision any person in custody who:
  - (a) is within two years of his or her earliest release date;
- 9 (b) has a stable living situation upon release;

8

- 10 (c) does not pose an unreasonable public safety risk; and
- 11 (d) appears to be rehabilitated, or is elderly, frail or immunocom-12 promised, or has a disability as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision 13 twenty-one of section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law.
- 2. Any pregnant woman or woman participating in the nursery program at a correctional facility shall be released to community supervision during such emergency unless she presents an exceptional public safety risk.
- 3. Any person over the age of fifty-five who has completed at least one half of his or her minimum sentence may be released in such an emeragency.
- 21 4. Such emergency release shall not be revoked when the emergency
  22 concludes as long as any person so released complies with the terms and
  23 conditions of community supervision.
- 24 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
