- § 131-bb. Transition shelters program. 1. Notwithstanding any other 4 provision of law to the contrary, each local social services district shall provide a shelter supplement to eligible individuals to prevent 6 homelessness, provide housing counseling and prevent risk of overdose in accordance with this section.
- 2. (a) Each local social services district shall provide a shelter 8 supplement to eligible individuals and families as defined in subdivi-9 10 sion three of this section in an amount equal to eighty-five percent of 11 the fair market rent in the district, as established by the federal department of housing and urban development, for the particular unit 12 13 size. The shelter supplement shall be issued by the local social services district directly to the landlord or vendor. 14
- 15 (b) A local social services district may also provide an additional 16 supplement in excess of eighty-five percent of the fair market rent, up 17 to one hundred percent of the fair market rent in the district, as 18 established by the federal department of housing and urban development. 19 Provided, however, the cost of the additional supplement shall be paid by the local social services district. 20
- 21 (c) As part of the supplement referenced in this subdivision, when an eligible recipient, as defined in subdivision three of this section, 22 23 incurs separate fuel for heating expenses, the local social services 24 district shall provide additional funds to cover such expenses, in excess of the amount already required for shelter costs pursuant to 25 26 paragraph (a) of this subdivision. Such heating allowance shall be 27 equivalent to the full amount of fuel for heating expenses, and shall be made directly to the vendor on behalf of the recipient. Any expenses 28 incurred by the local social services district that are (i) in excess of a recipient's fuel for heating allowance authorized pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section one hundred thirty-one-a of this title; (ii) made pursuant to section ninety-seven of this chapter; or (iii) to cover any arrears payments made to restore heating services or to prevent a shut-off, shall not be recoupable.

- 7 3. Individuals who have been released from incarceration and are not currently receiving another shelter supplement shall be eligible for the shelter supplement provided under this section.
- 4. Local social services districts shall provide the shelter supplement required under this section for up to six months. A shelter supplement may be provided for an additional length of time for good cause.
- 5. Employees of a shelter created pursuant to this section shall be trained regarding overdose prevention and shall provide housing counseling to such eligible individuals.
- 16 § 2. Section 153 of the social services law is amended by adding a new subdivision 13 to read as follows:
- 18 13. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, one 19 hundred percent of costs for shelter supplements including costs for 20 heating expenses, and home stability support services required by 21 section one hundred thirty-one-bb of this article shall be subject to 22 reimbursement by the state, as follows:
- 23 (a) by federal funds that can be properly applied to such expendi-24 tures; and
- 25 (b) the remainder to be paid by state funds.
- 26 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 27 have become a law.
