 $\left(\frac{f}{f}\right)$ (g) The provisions of this subdivision do not govern the employment by an employer of the employer's parents, spouse, domestic partner, or children; provided, however, that such family members shall be counted as persons employed by an employer for the purposes of the definition of employer set forth in section 8-102.

- § 3. Section 14 of the public housing law is amended by adding a new subdivision 8 to read as follows:
- 8. The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations for state 9 or locally funded rental subsidies or affordable housing lotteries, 10 which:
- (a) prohibit any state or locally funded rental subsidy or affordable housing lottery from inquiring about an applicant's criminal history 12 before such applicant has been found eligible for such rental subsidy 13 14 or affordable housing lottery;
- (b) develop strict criteria under which only individuals with a crimi-16 nal history directly relating to public safety may be denied a rental subsidy or affordable housing lottery based on such criminal history; 17
 - (c) prohibit any sealed criminal records of applicants for rental subsidies or affordable housing lotteries from being considered in the application process; and
- 21 (d) allow applicants whose applications are rejected to appeal such 22 rejection.
- § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 24 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
