AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law and the civil rights law, in relation to name changes upon marriage

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
2 "Jillian's Law".

3 § 2. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 15 of the domestic
4 relations law, as added by chapter 583 of the laws of 1985, is amended
5 to read as follows:

6 (b) Every application for a marriage license shall contain a statement
7 to the following effect:

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS

8
9 (1) Every person has the right to adopt any name by which he or she 10 wishes to be known simply by using that name consistently and without 11 intent to defraud.

12 (2) A person's last name (surname) does not automatically change upon 13 marriage, and neither party to the marriage must change his or her last
14 name. Parties to a marriage need not have the same last name.

15 (3) One or both parties to a marriage may elect to change the surname
16 by which he or she wishes to be known after the solemnization of the 17 marriage by entering the new name in the space below. Such entry shall 18 consist of one of the following surnames:

19 (i) the surname of the other spouse; or

20 (ii) any former surname of either spouse; or

21 (iii) a name combining into a single surname all or a segment of the 22 premarriage surname or any former surname of each spouse; or

23 (iv) a combination name separated by a hyphen, provided that each part 24 of such combination surname is the premarriage surname, or any former 25 surname, of each of the spouses.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD01471-01-9

(4) One or both parties to a marriage may elect to change the middle name by which he or she wishes to be known after the solemnization of the marriage by entering the new name in the space below. Such entry shall consist of one of the following options:

(i) the current surname of the spouse electing to change his or her name; or

(ii) any former surname of the spouse electing to change his or her name; or

(iii) the surname of the other spouse.

(5) The use of this option will have the effect of providing a record of the change of name. The marriage certificate, containing the new name, if any, constitutes proof that the use of the new name, or the retention of the former name, is lawful.

~~(5)~~ (6) Neither the use of, nor the failure to use, this option of selecting a new surname or middle name by means of this application abrogates the right of each person to adopt a different name through usage at some future date.
