

STATE OF NEW YORK

10525

IN ASSEMBLY

May 27, 2020

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Mosley) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the public service law, in relation to issuing a moratorium on utility termination of services during periods of pandemics and/or state of emergencies; and to amend a chapter of the laws of 2020 amending the public service law, relating to issuing a moratorium on utility termination of services during periods of pandemics and/or state of emergencies, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S.8113-A and A.10521, in relation to the effectiveness thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 9, 10 and 12 of section 91 of the public
2 service law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2020 amending the 3 public service law, relating to issuing a moratorium on utility termination of services during periods of pandemics and/or state of emergencies, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S.8113-A and A.10521, are 4 amended to read as follows:

7 9. No telephone corporation shall terminate or disconnect a residential service customer for the non-payment of an overdue charge for the 8 duration of the state disaster emergency declared pursuant to executive 9 order two hundred two of two thousand twenty (hereinafter "the COVID-19 10 state of emergency"). Telephone corporations shall have a duty to 11 restore service, to the extent not already required under this chapter, 12 ~~[to]~~ at the request of any residential customer within forty-eight hours
13 if such service has been terminated during the pendency of the COVID-19 14 state of emergency and disconnection of such service was due to non-payment of an overdue charge.
15

17 10. ~~[After]~~ For a period of one hundred eighty days after the COVID-19 18 state of emergency is lifted or expires, no telephone corporation shall 19 terminate or disconnect the service of a residential customer account 20 because of defaulted deferred payment agreements or arrears then owed to 21 the telephone corporation when such customer has experienced a change in 22 financial circumstances due to the COVID-19 state of emergency, as 23 defined by the department. The telephone corporation shall provide such

1 residential customer with the right to enter into, or restructure, a 2 deferred payment agreement without the requirement of a down payment, 3 late fees, or penalties[~~, as such is provided for in article two of this~~ 4 ~~chapter~~].

5 12. Implementation of the provisions of this section shall not prohib-
6 it a telephone corporation from recovering lost or deferred revenues
7 after the lifting or expiration of the COVID-19 state of emergency,
8 pursuant to such means for recovery as are provided for in this chapter, 9 and by means not inconsistent with any of the provisions of this 10 article. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a telephone corporation 11 from disconnecting service at the request of a customer. Nothing in this 12 section shall prohibit a telephone corporation from disconnecting
13 service when it is necessary to protect the health and safety of custom-14 ers and the public.

15 § 2. Section 5 of a chapter of the laws of 2020 amending the public 16 service law, relating to issuing a moratorium on utility termination of 17 services during periods of pandemics and/or state of emergencies, as 18 proposed in legislative bills numbers S.8113-A and A.10521, is amended 19 to read as follows:

20 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire March 31, 21 2021 when upon such date the provisions of this act shall be deemed 22 repealed.

23 § 3. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same 24 manner as a chapter of the laws of 2020 amending the public service law,
25 relating to issuing a moratorium on utility termination of services 26 during periods of pandemics and/or state of emergencies, as proposed in 27 legislative bills numbers S.8113-A and A.10521, takes effect; provided 28 however, that the amendments to subdivisions 9, 10 and 12 of section 91 29 of the public service law made by section one of this act shall not 30 affect the repeal of such subdivisions and shall be deemed to be 31 repealed therewith.
