STATE OF NEW YORK

10601

IN ASSEMBLY

June 5, 2020

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Buttenschon, Gunther, Woerner, McDonald, Thiele, Griffin, Gottfried, Hyndman) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, the general municipal law and the town law, in relation to requiring the inclusion of diversity and inclusion training in the basic training and pre-employment course curriculums for state police officers and municipal police officers and sheriffs; to amend the general municipal law, in relation to requiring the inclusion of diversity and inclusion training in the basic training and pre-employment course curricula for members of fire departments and companies; to amend the correction law, in relation to requiring the inclusion of diversity and inclusion training in the basic training and pre-employment course curricula for correction officers; and to amend the public health law, in relation to requiring the inclusion of diversity and inclusion training in the basic training and pre-employment course curricula for first responders, emergency medical technicians and advanced emergency medical technicians

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 214-g to read as follows:

§ 214-g. Training. 1. The superintendent shall establish policies and procedures requiring that state police basic training and pre-employment course curricula include training in the areas of diversity and inclusion, including training pertaining to appropriate sensitivity to issues of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age and disabilities. Such training shall comprise not less than twenty percent of the basic training and pre-employment course training curricula. Diversity training shall be provided by an accredited educator and/or trainer approved by the superintendent of the state police.

2. The superintendent of the state police shall provide information pertaining to such policies and procedures to municipal law enforcement agencies and departments, fire departments, the department of corrections and community supervision and the department of health for implementation of such curricula by such agencies and departments.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD16630-01-0

3. The superintendent of the state police shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section.

§ 2. The general municipal law is amended by adding a new section 208-i to read as follows:

§ 208-i. Mandatory police officer diversity training. The chief officer of every police department and sheriff's office in the state shall establish and implement basic training and pre-employment course curricula for all members of such office or department and for all current and new officer employees in accordance with the diversity policies and procedures established pursuant to section two hundred fourteen-g of the executive law.

§ 3. Section 204-d of the general municipal law, as amended by section 44 of part B of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 204-d. Duties of the fire chief. 1. The fire chief of any fire department or company shall, in addition to any other duties assigned to him by law or contract, to the extent reasonably possible determine or cause to be determined the cause of each fire or explosion which the fire department or company has been called to suppress. He shall file with the office of fire prevention and control a report containing such determination and any additional information required by such office regarding the fire or explosion. The report shall be in the form designated by such office. He shall contact or cause to be contacted the appropriate investigatory authority if he has reason to believe the fire or explosion is of incendiary or suspicious origin. For all fires that are suspected to have been ignited by a cigarette, within fourteen days after completing the investigation into such fire, the fire chief shall forward to the office of fire prevention and control information detailing, to the extent possible: (a) the specific brand and style of the cigarette suspected of having ignited such fire; (b) whether the cigarette package was marked as required by subdivision six of section one hundred fifty-six-c of the executive law; and (c) the location and manner in which such cigarette was purchased.

2. The fire chief of any fire department or company in the state shall establish and implement basic training and pre-employment course curricula for all members of such fire department or company and for all current and new employees in accordance with the diversity policies and procedures established pursuant to section two hundred fourteen-g of the executive law.

§ 4. The town law is amended by adding a new section 155-a to read as follows:

§ 155-a. Mandatory police officer diversity training. The chief officer of every police department in the state shall establish and implement basic training and pre-employment course curricula for all members of such office and for all current and new officer employees in accordance with the diversity policies and procedures established pursuant to section two hundred fourteen-g of the executive law.

§ 5. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 22-b to read as follows:

§ 22-b. Mandatory correction officer diversity training. The commissioner shall establish and implement basic training and pre-employment course curricula for all members of the department and for all current and new officer employees in accordance with the diversity policies and procedures established pursuant to section two hundred fourteen-g of the executive law.

§ 6. Section 3002 of the public health law is amended by adding a new subdivision 2-c to read as follows:

2-c. The commissioner, in consultation with the state emergency medical services council, shall establish and implement basic training and pre-employment course curricula for all current first responders, emergency medical technicians and advanced emergency medical technicians and for all new first responders, emergency medical technicians and advanced emergency medical technicians in accordance with the diversity policies and procedures established pursuant to section two hundred fourteen-g of the executive law.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately.