Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Hevesi) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to establishing requirements for the transfer, discharge and voluntary discharge from residential health care facilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section
2 2803-z to read as follows:

3 § 2803-z. Transfer, discharge and voluntary discharge requirements for 4 residential health care facilities. 1. (a) No residential health care 5 facility shall transfer or discharge a resident unless such transfer or 6 discharge is necessary for the resident's health, safety, or welfare, 7 such transfer or discharge is necessary to preserve the health, safety, 8 or welfare of other residents, the facility discontinues operation or 9 the resident has failed to pay or make arrangements for payment for a 10 stay at the facility, unless stated otherwise by this section.

11 (b) Prior to a facility initiating a transfer or discharge of a resi-12 dent, the facility shall use its best efforts, including compliance with 13 applicable federal and state regulations, to secure appropriate place-14 ment or a residential arrangement for the resident, other than temporary 15 housing assistance. For purposes of this section, "temporary housing 16 assistance" shall include but not be limited to a family shelter, a 17 shelter for adults, a hotel, an emergency apartment, a domestic violence
18 shelter, or a safe house for refugees. No residential health care facil-19 ity shall initiate a transfer or discharge of a resident to the home of 20 another individual without the written consent of the resident and the 21 other individual and the other individual has received and acknowledged 22 the comprehensive discharge plan to address the resident's needs.

23 (c) At least thirty days prior to a facility-initiated transfer or 24 discharge, the residential health care facility shall provide written 25 notification of the transfer or discharge to the resident, the resi-26 dent's lawful representative, if any, a family member of the resident, 27 if known, and the long-term care ombudsman under section two hundred

1 eighteen of the elder law. The notification shall be in a language and 2 manner that is understandable to the resident and shall state the basis
3 for the transfer or discharge, which shall be recorded in the resident's 4 clinical record.

5 (d) A resident may be transferred or discharged if the facility is 6 unable to meet the needs of the resident. In that case, the resident's 7 clinical record shall document (i) the specific need or needs that 8 cannot be met, (ii) the facility's attempts to meet the resident's
9 needs, and (iii) the services available at the receiving facility.

10 (e) When a resident is being transferred or discharged because the 11 resident cannot be cared for safely, or is a danger to others, prior 12 notice may be provided less than thirty days prior to the transfer or 13 discharge but shall be provided as soon as practicable prior to transfer 14 or discharge. The facility shall document in the resident's clinical 15 record the risks to the resident or others if the resident were to 16 remain in the facility.

17 (f) A residential health care facility may transfer or discharge a 18 resident because the resident does not need residential health care
19 facility services.

20 2. Where the resident's transfer or discharge is initiated by the 21 resident and the clinical record notes that a family member or design-
22 ated representative has requested notification, and such notification 23 is otherwise lawful, the residential health care facility shall notify 24 the family member or designated representative of the resident's volun-
25 tary transfer or discharge as soon as practicable after the resident 26 initiates the voluntary transfer or discharge process and in no event
27 more than forty-eight hours thereafter. The notice shall not be provided 28 if the resident specifically requests that the family member or design-29 ated representative not be notified.

30 3. A residential health care facility shall not compel or attempt to 31 compel an individual to voluntarily transfer or discharge from the 32 facility.

33 § 2. Subdivision 3 of section 2803-c of the public health law is 34 amended by adding a new paragraph r to read as follows:

35 r. Every patient shall have the right to remain in care unless the 36 patient is appropriately discharged or transferred in accordance with 37 section two thousand eight hundred three-z of this article and a resi-
38 dential health care facility shall not attempt to compel or retaliate
39 against an individual that chooses to remain in care.

40 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
