2 202.7, 202.8, 202.10, 202.11, 202.13 or 202.14, as extended by Executive
3 Orders 202.28 and 202.31 and as further extended by any future Executive 4 Order, issued in response to the COVID-19 pandemic continue to apply in 5 the county in which the covered tenant is located.

6 § 2. (a) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule or regu-7 lation to the contrary, any covered tenant in the state that has been 8 forced to close their place of business, or whose business activities
9 have been substantially curtailed resulting in a loss of income as a 10 result of government ordered restrictions in response to the outbreak of 11 coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), shall be responsible for rent 12 payments up to twenty percent of the covered tenant's actual income for 13 the thirty days prior to the date such rent was due or one-third of 14 their contractual rent, whichever is less, per month for the duration of 15 the covered period through one hundred eighty days following the final 16 day of the covered period. A landlord of a covered tenant shall waive 17 twenty percent of the contractual rent per month for the duration of one 18 hundred eighty days following the final day of the covered period.

19 (ii) Where a covered tenant is authorized to pay an amount that is 20 less than their contractual or statutory rent pursuant to this act, the 21 covered tenant shall provide the landlord and the department of finan-
22 cial services with a sworn affidavit affirming the covered tenant's
23 actual income for the thirty days prior to the date such rent was due 24 for each month for which the tenant is seeking a reduced payment of rent 25 due to loss of income as a result of government ordered restrictions in 26 response to the outbreak of coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19). Upon 27 the verification of such statement by the superintendent of the depart-28 ment of financial services or his or her agent, such payment shall 29 absolve the covered tenant of any further obligation to pay rent and any 30 difference between the rent that would have been contractually or statu-31 torily owed and the amount paid pursuant to this paragraph shall be 32 waived, except where a covered tenant later receives additional income, 33 such rent obligations shall be recalculated.

34 (iii) In a summary proceeding for the non-payment of rent under arti-
35 cle 7 of the real property actions and proceedings law, a covered tenant
36 may raise a payment made pursuant to this act as a defense to non-pay-
37 ment. If the amount of the covered tenant's actual income is in dispute, 38 the court shall review documentation of the covered tenant's income in 39 camera, unless otherwise deemed necessary by the court. Notwithstanding 40 any other provision of law to the contrary customary documentation of 41 income shall constitute prima facie evidence of the covered tenant's
42 actual income and shall be presumptively admissible in such summary
43 proceeding.

44 (b) Any covered tenant whose lease expires during the covered period 45 shall have the option of extending such lease under the terms existing 46 prior to the expiration of the lease for a period of up to one hundred 47 eighty days after the expiration of the state of emergency.

48 (c) Late fees, interest or other penalties shall not be collectable
49 for rent accrued during the existence of the state of emergency.

50 § 3. (a) The superintendent of the department of financial services is 51 hereby authorized and directed to establish and implement an interim
52 commercial rent relief program to support covered tenants and landlords 53 impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Such program shall be provided up to 54 $500,000,000 of monies that have been allocated to the state of New 55 York by the federal government.

1 (b) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, a landlord that has 2 lost rental income pursuant to this act and has not been fully compen-3 sated by emergency federal, state or local assistance, may apply to the 4 department of financial services for relief. The superintendent of the 5 department of financial services may, upon satisfaction of the veracity 6 of the landlord's application and to the extent possible, authorize the 7 distribution of any unrestricted federal emergency assistance monies
8 provided to the state that have not otherwise been obligated, to any 9 such landlord in the amount of the balance of rental income lost after 10 the twenty percent of the contractual rent waived by the landlord and 11 any amount paid by a covered tenant pursuant to section two of this act.
12 The superintendent of the department of financial services shall promul-
13 gate rules and regulations to effectuate the provisions of this act.

14 § 4. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, no court shall 15 accept for filing a petition to commence a new summary proceeding to 16 recover possession of real property under article 7 of the real property 17 actions and proceedings law for non-payment of rent due to loss of 18 income as a result of government ordered restrictions in response to the 19 outbreak of coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) for at least thirty days
20 following the expiration of the state of emergency; provided any statute 21 of limitations applicable to such summary proceedings shall be tolled 22 for thirty days; provided further, however, that the tenant shall 23 provide a sworn affidavit affirming the covered tenant's loss of income 24 as a result of government ordered restrictions in response to the 25 outbreak of coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19). In no event shall late 26 or reduced rent payments during the state of emergency constitute the 27 basis for a summary holdover proceeding for the chronic nonpayment of 28 rent.

29 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to 30 have been in full force and effect on and after March 7, 2020.
