fees, or supplemental sex offender victim fees; and to repeal subdivision 3 of section 420.30 of the criminal procedure law relating to restrictions on remitting such fees (Part H)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act enacts into law major components of legislation relating to ending the unfair financial burdens imposed on defendants in criminal, vehicle and traffic, or other types of criminal or quasi-criminal matters by the existence of mandatory court surcharges and fees and mandatory minimum fines. This act further enacts into law procedures by which courts would be required to engage in an individualized assessment of a person's financial ability to pay a fine prior to imposing a fine, eliminates the availability of incarceration as a remedy for a failure to pay a fine, and vacates all existing warrants or unsatisfied civil judgments issued solely based on a person's failure to timely pay a fine, surcharge, or fee. Each component is wholly contained within a Part identified as Parts A through H. The effective date for each particular provision contained within such Part is set forth in the last section of such Part. Any provision in any section contained within a Part, including the effective date of the Part, which makes reference to a section "of this act", when used in connection with that particular component, shall be deemed to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Part in which it is found. Section four of this act sets forth the general effective date of this act.

§ 2. Legislative intent. The legislative intent of this act is to end the inequitable financial burdens placed on defendants by the previously enacted statutory provisions which have authorized or mandated the imposition of surcharges, fees, and/or mandatory minimum fines, which have had a disparate impact on poor defendants, people of color, and those who lack access to the significant financial resources necessary in order to satisfy the imposition of surcharges, fees, and fines, and which have also contributed to mass incarceration in New York state. The legislative intent is also to end New York's regressive reliance on generating governmental revenue by imposing surcharges, fees, and fines on those least able to pay.

§ 10. Subdivision (f) of section 1101 of the civil practice law and rules, as added by section 1 of part D of chapter 412 of the laws of 1999, subparagraph (i) of paragraph 1 and paragraph 3 as amended by section 51 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

(f) Fees for inmates. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a federal, state or local inmate under sentence for conviction of a crime may seek to commence his or her action or proceeding by paying a reduced filing fee as provided in paragraph two of this subdivision. Such inmate shall file the form affidavit referred to in subdivision (d) of this section along with the summons and complaint or summons with notice or third-party summons and complaint or petition or notice of petition or order to show cause. As part of such application, the inmate shall indicate the name and mailing address of the facility at which he or she is confined along with the name and mailing address of any other federal, state or local facility at which he or she was confined during the preceding six month period. The case will be given an index number if applicable, or, in courts other than the supreme or county courts, any necessary filing number and the application will be submitted to a judge of the court. Upon receipt of the application, the court shall obtain from the appropriate official of the facility at which the inmate is confined a certified copy of the inmate's trust fund account statement (or institutional equivalent) for the six month period preceding filing of the inmate's application. If the inmate has been confined for less than six months at such facility, the court shall obtain additional information as follows:

(i) in the case of a state inmate who has been transferred from another state correctional facility, the court shall obtain a trust fund account statement for the six month period from the central office of the department of corrections and community supervision in Albany; or

(ii) in the case of a state inmate who is newly transferred from a federal or local correctional facility, the court shall obtain any trust fund account statement currently available from such facility. The court may, in its discretion, seek further information from the prior or current facility.

2. If the court determines that the inmate has insufficient means to pay the full filing fee, the court may permit the inmate to pay a reduced filing fee, the minimum of which shall not be less than fifteen dollars and the maximum of which shall not be more than fifty dollars. The court shall require an initial payment of such portion of the reduced filing fee as the inmate can reasonably afford or shall authorize no initial payment of the fee if exceptional circumstances render the inmate unable to pay any fee; provided however, that the difference between the amount of the reduced filing fee and the amount paid by the inmate in the initial partial payment shall be assessed against the inmate as an outstanding obligation to be collected either by the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility at which the inmate is confined, as the case may be~~, in the same manner that mandatory surcharges are collected as provided for in subdivision five of section 60.35 of the penal law~~. The court shall notify the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility where the inmate is housed of the amount of the reduced filing fee that was not directed to be paid by the inmate. Thereafter, the superintendent or the municipal official shall forward to the court any fee obligations that have been collected, provided however, that:

(i) in no event shall the filing fee collected exceed the amount of fees required for the commencement of an action or proceeding; and

(ii) in no event shall an inmate be prohibited from proceeding for the reason that the inmate has no assets and no means by which to pay the initial partial filing fee.

1 3. The institution at which an inmate is confined, or the central 2 office for the department of corrections and community supervision,
3 whichever is applicable, shall promptly provide the trust fund account 4 statement to the inmate as required by this subdivision.

5 4. Whenever any federal, state or local inmate obtains a judgment in 6 connection with any action or proceeding which exceeds the amount of the 7 filing fee, paid in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision 8 for commencing such action or proceeding, the court shall award to the 9 prevailing inmate, as a taxable disbursement, the actual amount of any 10 fee paid to commence the action or proceeding.

11 5. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to a proceeding 12 commenced pursuant to article seventy-eight of this chapter which 13 alleges a failure to correctly award or certify jail time credit due an 14 inmate, in violation of section six hundred-a of the correction law and 15 section 70.30 of the penal law.

16 § 11. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 259-i of the executive 17 law, as amended by section 38-f-1 of subpart A of part C of chapter 62

22 or members as determined by the rules of the board shall personally 23 interview such inmate and determine whether he should be paroled in 24 accordance with the guidelines adopted pursuant to subdivision four of

30 from such determination for reconsideration, and the procedures to be 31 followed upon reconsideration shall be the same. If the inmate is

33 conditions shall where appropriate, include a requirement that the paro-
34 lee comply with any restitution order, mandatory surcharge, sex offender

43 (ii) Any inmate who is scheduled for presumptive release pursuant to 44 section eight hundred six of the correction law shall not appear before 45 the board as provided in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph unless such 46 inmate's scheduled presumptive release is forfeited, canceled, or

48 inmate shall appear before the board for release consideration as 49 provided in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph as soon thereafter as is 50 practicable.

2 he should be paroled at the expiration of the minimum period or periods
3 in accordance with the procedures adopted pursuant to subdivision four 4 of section two hundred fifty-nine-c of this article. If parole is not 5 granted upon such review, the inmate shall be informed in writing within 6 two weeks of such appearance of the factors and reasons for such denial
7 of parole. Such reasons shall be given in detail and not in conclusory
8 terms. The board shall specify a date not more than twenty-four months 9 from such determination for reconsideration, and the procedures to be 10 followed upon reconsideration shall be the same. If the inmate is 11 released, he shall be given a copy of the conditions of parole. Such 12 conditions shall where appropriate, include a requirement that the paro-
13 lee comply with any restitution order and mandatory surcharge previously 14 imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction that applies to the paro-
15 lee. The conditions shall indicate which restitution collection agency
