- (a) The board of directors or managing agent of any residential cooperative corporation, incorporated pursuant to this chapter, shall establish through amendments to its by-laws uniform processes for applying to and considering applications for the purchase certificates of stock, a proprietary lease or other evidence of an ownership interest in such residential cooperative corporation.
- 10 (b) Written notice of such processes shall be made available to any 11 prospective purchasers and prospective sellers, or their respective real 12 estate agents, promptly upon request. Prospective purchasers shall be 13 required to confirm receipt of such notice in writing.
- (c) At a minimum, such processes shall require the board of directors or managing agent, upon receiving an application from a prospective purchaser, to acknowledge receipt of such application and to include in such acknowledgement of receipt whether the application submitted fully satisfies the requirements therefor, the way or ways the submitted application is incomplete, and/or any additional materials necessary to effectuate consideration of the application.
- 21 (d) The processes established pursuant to this section shall further 22 require that, following the submission of a completed application and all additional materials requested in the acknowledgement of receipt, the board of directors or managing agent shall notify the prospective purchaser or their agent that the application is complete. Such notice 3 shall state by what date review of the application will be complete and when the prospective purchaser or their agent whether its consent to the sale is granted or denied.

- (e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the rights or remedies provided by any other provision of law.
- 9 § 2. The business corporation law is amended by adding a new section 10 728 to read as follows:
- 11 § 728. Residential cooperative corporations; ownership interests.
- (a) The board of directors or managing agent of any residential coop-13 erative corporation, incorporated pursuant to this chapter, shall estab-14 lish through amendments to its by-laws uniform processes for applying to and considering applications for the purchase certificates of stock, a 16 proprietary lease or other evidence of an ownership interest in such 17 residential cooperative corporation.
 - (b) Written notice of such processes shall be made available to any prospective purchasers and prospective sellers, or their respective real estate agents, promptly upon request. Prospective purchasers shall be required to confirm receipt of such notice in writing.
 - (c) At a minimum, such processes shall require the board of directors or managing agent, upon receiving an application from a prospective purchaser, to acknowledge receipt of such application and to include in such acknowledgement of receipt whether the application submitted fully satisfies the requirements therefor, the way or ways the submitted application is incomplete, and/or any additional materials necessary to effectuate consideration of the application.
- 29 (d) The processes established pursuant to this section shall further 30 require that, following the submission of a completed application and 31 all additional materials requested in the acknowledgement of receipt, the board of directors or managing agent shall notify the prospective 32 33 purchaser or their agent that the application is complete. Such notice shall state by what date review of the application will be complete and 34 when the prospective purchaser or their agent whether its consent to the 35 36 sale is granted or denied.
- 37 (e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the rights or 38 remedies provided by any other provision of law.
- 39 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
