2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 15, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. HAWLEY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to ending the ability of a striking worker to collect unemployment benefits

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 592 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 415 of
2 the laws of 1983, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 177 of the laws of
3 2010, is amended to read as follows:

4 § 592. Suspension of accumulation of benefit rights. 1. Industrial
5 controversy. (a) The accumulation of benefit rights by a claimant shall 6 be suspended [~~during a period of seven consecutive weeks beginning with~~
7 the day after such claimant lost his or her employment because of a
8 strike or other industrial controversy except for lockouts, including 9 concerted activity not authorized or sanctioned by the recognized or 10 certified bargaining agent of the claimant, and other concerted activity
11 conducted in violation of any existing collective bargaining agreement,
12 in the establishment in which he or she was employed[~~, except that bene-~~
13 ~~fit rights may be accumulated before the expiration of such seven weeks~~
14 ~~beginning with the day after such strike or other industrial controversy~~
15 ~~was terminated~~].

16 (b) Benefits shall not be suspended under this section if:

17 (i) The employer hires a permanent replacement worker for the employ-
18 ee's position. A replacement worker shall be presumed to be [~~permanent~~ 19 ~~temporary~~ unless the employer [~~certifies in writing that~~ denies the 20 employee [~~will be able~~ the opportunity to return to his or her prior
21 position upon conclusion of the strike[~~, in the event the strike termi-~~
22 ~~nates prior to the conclusion of the employee's eligibility for benefit~~
23 ~~rights under this chapter~~]. In the event the employer does not permit 24 such return [~~after such certification~~], the replacement worker shall be
25 deemed to have been a permanent replacement worker and the employee

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

1 shall be entitled to recover any benefits lost as a result of the [~~seven~~
2 ~~week~~] suspension of benefits[~~, and the department may impose a penalty~~
3 ~~upon the employer of up to seven hundred fifty dollars per employee per~~
4 ~~week of benefits lost. The penalty collected shall be paid into the~~
5 ~~unemployment insurance control fund established pursuant to section five~~
6 ~~hundred fifty-two b of this article~~]; or

7 (ii) The commissioner determines that the claimant:

8 (A) is not employed by an employer that is involved in the industrial
9 controversy that caused his or her unemployment and is not participating 10 in the industrial controversy; or

11 (B) is not in a bargaining unit involved in the industrial controversy
12 that caused his or her unemployment and is not participating in the 13 industrial controversy.

14 2. Concurrent payments prohibited. No days of total unemployment shall 15 be deemed to occur in any week with respect to which or a part of which 16 a claimant has received or is seeking unemployment benefits under an 17 unemployment compensation law of any other state or of the United
18 States, provided that this provision shall not apply if the appropriate
19 agency of such other state or of the United States finally determines 20 that he is not entitled to such unemployment benefits.

21 3. Terms of suspension. No waiting period may be served during a
22 suspension period.

23 The suspension of accumulation of benefit rights shall not be termi-
24 nated by subsequent employment of the claimant irrespective of when the 25 claim is filed except as provided in subdivision one of this section and 26 shall not be confined to a single benefit year.

27 [~~A "week" as used in subdivision one of this section means any seven~~
28 ~~consecutive calendar days.~~]

29 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
