- § 271. Commission on long term care facilities. 1. A temporary state commission, to be known as the commission on long term care facilities (hereinafter the "commission"), is hereby created to study and make recommendations concerning the following:
- (a) the effects of closures of long term care facilities on residents including, but not limited to, the disruption of any established communities within the facility and the physical and mental health implications related to moving a resident to a new facility;
- (b) the effects of closures of long term care facilities on family members of residents including, but not limited to, ability to visit residents based on new distance of facility; availability of appropriate placement for a resident; and, ensuring the transfer of legal documents and special care instructions;
- (c) the availability of long term care facility placements for New Yorkers who need skilled nursing care or who have Alzheimer's disease or other dementia;
- (d) the feasibility of arranging comparable placements, as opposed to appropriate placements, in other facilities within the same geographical area when a long term care facility serves fifty or more residents;
- (e) the effectiveness of current laws, rules, and regulations governing the process of closing a long term care facility, including notice to residents and assistance to relocate residents; and
 - (f) such other matters as the commission deems appropriate.
- 2. The commission shall make recommendations for additional legislation and/or regulations to govern the closing of long term care facilities and facilitate the relocation of long term care facility residents in a manner that is in the best interests of the residents in the event of a closure of a long term care facility. The commission shall further study the need, if any, to devise a notification system to alert residents and families not less than one year in advance of the closure or potential closure of a long term care facility.
- 3. (a) The commission shall consist of eleven members to be appointed as follows: five members shall be appointed by the governor and shall include the commissioner of health, the director of the office for the aging, the state attorney general, the state ombudsman, and one additional member who shall be a resident of the state with expertise and experience in the fields of long term care and advocacy; two members shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate; two members shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly; one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate; and one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the assembly. All of the members appointed by the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate and the minority leader of the assembly shall be residents of the state with expertise and experience in the fields of long term care and advocacy. No person shall be a member of such commission while such person is a member of the senate or assembly. Any vacancy on such commission shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment was made. A chairperson and vicechairperson of such commission shall be elected by the majority of its members, all members being present.
- 54 (b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, no
 55 member, officer or employee of the commission shall be disqualified from
 56 holding any other public office or employment, nor shall he or she forfeit any such office or employment by reason of his or her appointment hereunder, notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special 3 or local law, ordinance or city charter.

- (c) All members of the commission shall be appointed within sixty days of the effective date of this section. The first meeting of the commission shall take place within thirty days after appointment of all members of the commission.
- 4. The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services.
- 5. The commission may employ and at pleasure remove such personnel as it may deem necessary for the performance of its functions and fix their compensation within the amounts made available by appropriation therefor, if any, or by donation, if any. The commission may meet and hold public and/or private hearings within or without the state, and shall have all the powers of a legislative committee pursuant to the legisla-
- 6. For the accomplishment of its purposes, the commission shall be authorized and empowered to undertake any studies, inquiries, surveys or analyses it may deem relevant through its own personnel or in cooperation with or by agreement with any other public or private agency.
- 7. The commission may request and shall receive from any agency in the state and from any subdivision, department, board, bureau, commission, office, agency or other instrumentality of the state or of any political subdivision thereof such facilities, assistance and data as it deems necessary or desirable for the proper execution of its powers and duties and to effectuate the purposes set forth in this section.
- 8. The commission is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into any agreements and to do and perform any acts that may be necessary, desirable or proper to carry out the purposes and objectives of this section.
- 9. The commission may administer oaths or affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, examine them under oath or affirmation and require the production of any books, records, documents or other evidence it may deem relevant or material to an investigation.
- 10. The commission shall make a report of its findings and recommendations and shall submit such report, including any recommendations for legislative action as it may deem necessary and appropriate, to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate and the minority leader of the assembly one year after the first meeting of the commission.
- 40 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall continue in full 41 force and effect until one year after the report and recommendations of 42 the commission on long term care facilities is delivered to the governor 43 and the legislature when upon such date the provisions of this act shall 44 be deemed repealed; provided that the office for the aging shall notify 45 the legislative bill drafting commission upon the occurrence of the 46 enactment of the legislation provided for in section one of this act in order that the commission may maintain an accurate and timely effective 47 data base of the official text of the laws of the state of New York in 48 furtherance of effectuating the provisions of section 44 of the legisla-49 tive law and section 70-b of the public officers law.
