AN ACT to establish a task force to study how to incentivize individuals in the state of New York to become pilots

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. a. A task force is hereby established to study how to incentivize individuals in the state of New York to become pilots.

b. The task force shall study:

(i) measures the state of New York has taken or may take to incentivize individuals to become pilots;

(ii) measures airlines within the country have taken to incentivize individuals to become pilots;

(iii) measures other states have taken to incentivize individuals to become pilots;

(iv) the effect of high-stress scheduling on pilots;

(v) why pilots are retiring at high rates despite financial incentives to remain in the industry;

(vi) the cost of education and training for an individual to become employed as a pilot; and

(vii) the effect of a strong aviation industry on state tourism.

c. No later than one year after the effective date of this act, the task force shall report its findings to the governor and the legislature, as described under subdivision b of this section.

§ 2. a. The task force shall be comprised of:

(i) two members appointed by the governor;

(ii) two members appointed by the temporary president of the senate;

(iii) two members appointed by the speaker of the assembly; and

(iv) one member appointed by the commissioner of transportation.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

b. One of the appointments by the governor shall serve as chairperson of the task force.

c. The members of the task force shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their services.

d. All departments, divisions, bureaus, commissions, districts or agencies of the state or any political subdivisions thereof shall, at the request of the chairperson, provide the task force with such facilities, assistance and data as will enable the task force to carry out its powers and duties.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
