IN ASSEMBLY

January 15, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. RICHARDSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law and the penal law, in relation to temporary release eligibility for judicially ordered comprehensive alcohol and substance abuse treatment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 60 of the laws of 1994, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 320 of the laws of 2006, the closing paragraph as amended by section 42 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

2. "Eligible inmate" means: a person confined in an institution who is eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for release 7 8 on parole or conditional release within two years or who has completed a judicially-ordered substance abuse treatment program in a state correc-10 tional facility pursuant to subdivision six of section 60.04 of the 11 penal law. Provided, however, that a person under sentence for an 12 offense defined in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision one of section 13 70.02 of the penal law, where such offense involved the use or threat-14 ened use of a deadly weapon or dangerous instrument shall not be eligible to participate in a work release program until he or she is eligible for release on parole or who will be eligible for release on parole or 16 conditional release within eighteen months. Provided, further, however, 17 that a person under a determinate sentence as a second felony drug 18 19 offender for a class B felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, who was sentenced pursuant to section 70.70 of 21 such law, shall not be eligible to participate in a temporary release 22 program until the time served under imprisonment for his or her determinate sentence, including any jail time credited pursuant to the 24 provisions of article seventy of the penal law, shall be at least eighteen months. In the case of a person serving an indeterminate sentence imprisonment imposed pursuant to the penal law in effect after September one, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, for the purposes of 3 article parole eligibility shall be upon the expiration of the minimum period of imprisonment fixed by the court or where the court has not fixed any period, after service of the minimum period fixed by the state 7 parole. If an inmate is denied release on parole, such inmate shall not be deemed an eligible inmate until he or she is within two 9 years of his or her next scheduled appearance before the state parole 10 board. In any case where an inmate is denied release on parole while 11 participating in a temporary release program, the department shall review the status of the inmate to determine if continued placement in 12 13 the program is appropriate. No person convicted of any escape or 14 absconding offense defined in article two hundred five of the penal law 15 shall be eligible for temporary release. Further, no person under 16 sentence for aggravated harassment of an employee by an inmate as defined in section 240.32 of the penal law for, any homicide offense 17 defined in article one hundred twenty-five of the penal law, for any sex 18 offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law, or for 19 20 offense defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law 21 shall be eligible to participate in a work release program as defined in subdivision three of this section. Nor shall any person under sentence 22 for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal 23 law be eligible to participate in a community services program as 24 25 defined in subdivision five of this section. Notwithstanding the forego-26 ing, no person who is an otherwise eligible inmate who is under sentence 27 for a crime involving: (a) infliction of serious physical injury upon another as defined in the penal law or (b) any other offense involving 28 29 the use or threatened use of a deadly weapon may participate in a tempo-30 rary release program without the written approval of the commissioner. 31 The commissioner shall promulgate regulations giving direction to the 32 temporary release committee at each institution in order to aid such 33 committees in carrying out this mandate.

The governor, by executive order, may exclude or limit the participation of any class of otherwise eligible inmates from participation in temporary release program. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to affect either the validity of any executive order previously issued limiting the participation of otherwise eligible inmates in such program or the authority of the commissioner to impose appropriate regulations limiting such participation.

- § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 447 of the laws of 1991, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 252 of the laws of 2005, and the closing paragraph as amended by section 43 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:
- 2. "Eligible inmate" means: a person confined in an institution who is eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for release on parole or conditional release within two years or who has completed a 48 judicially-ordered substance abuse treatment program in a state correctional facility pursuant to subdivision six of section 60.04 of the 51 Provided, that a person under a determinate sentence as a penal law. 52 second felony drug offender for a class B felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, who was sentenced pursuant 54 to section 70.70 of such law, shall not be eligible to participate in a temporary release program until the time served under imprisonment for his or her determinate sentence, including any jail time credited pursuant to the provisions of article seventy of the penal law, shall be at least eighteen months. In the case of a person serving an indeterminate 3 sentence of imprisonment imposed pursuant to the penal law in effect after September one, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, for the purposes of this article parole eligibility shall be upon the expiration of the minimum period of imprisonment fixed by the court or where the court has 7 fixed any period, after service of the minimum period fixed by the state board of parole. If an inmate is denied release on parole, such 9 inmate shall not be deemed an eligible inmate until he or she is within 10 two years of his or her next scheduled appearance before the state 11 parole board. In any case where an inmate is denied release on parole while participating in a temporary release program, the department shall 12 review the status of the inmate to determine if continued placement 13 14 the program is appropriate. No person convicted of any escape or 15 absconding offense defined in article two hundred five of the penal law 16 shall be eligible for temporary release. Nor shall any person under 17 sentence for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of 18 the penal law be eligible to participate in a community services program defined in subdivision five of this section. Notwithstanding the 19 20 foregoing, no person who is an otherwise eligible inmate who is under 21 sentence for a crime involving: (a) infliction of serious physical injury upon another as defined in the penal law, (b) a sex offense involving 22 23 forcible compulsion, or (c) any other offense involving the use or threatened use of a deadly weapon may participate in a temporary release 24 25 program without the written approval of the commissioner. The commis-26 sioner shall promulgate regulations giving direction to the temporary 27 release committee at each institution in order to aid such committees in 28 carrying out this mandate. 29

The governor, by executive order, may exclude or limit the participation of any class of otherwise eligible inmates from participation in temporary release program. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to affect either the validity of any executive order previously issued limiting the participation of otherwise eligible inmates such program or the authority of the commissioner to impose appropriate regulations limiting such participation.

- § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as added by chapter 472 of the laws of 1969, is amended to read as follows:
- 2. "Eligible inmate" means a person confined in an institution where a work release program has been established who is eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for release on parole within one year or who has completed a judicially-ordered substance abuse treatment program in a state correctional facility pursuant to subdivision six of section 60.04 of the penal law.
- 4. Subdivision 6 of section 60.04 of the penal law, as amended by section 120 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:
- 6. Substance abuse treatment. When the court imposes a sentence of imprisonment which requires a commitment to the state department of corrections and community supervision upon a person who stands convicted of a controlled substance or marihuana offense, the court may, upon 51 motion of the defendant in its discretion, issue an order directing that 52 the department of corrections and community supervision enroll the defendant in the comprehensive alcohol and substance abuse treatment 54 program in an alcohol and substance abuse correctional annex as defined 55 in subdivision eighteen of section two of the correction law, provided that the defendant will satisfy the statutory eligibility criteria for

1 participation in such program. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision, any defendant to be enrolled in such program pursu-3 ant to this subdivision shall be governed by the same rules and regulations promulgated by the department of corrections and community supervision, including without limitation those rules and regulations establishing requirements for completion and those rules and regulations governing discipline and removal from the program. Such defendant shall be deemed eligible for temporary release pursuant to subdivision two of 9 section eight hundred fifty-one of the correction law upon completion of 10 such program. No such period of court ordered corrections based drug 11 abuse treatment pursuant to this subdivision shall be required to extend 12 beyond the defendant's conditional release date.

§ 5. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 14 have become a law; provided however, that the amendments to subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law made by section one of this act shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of such subdivision and section pursuant to subdivision (c) of section 46 of chapter 60 of the laws of 1994 and section 10 of chapter 339 of the laws of 1972, as amended, when upon such date the provisions of section two of this act shall take effect; provided further, that the amendments to subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law made by section two of this act shall expire on the same date as subdivision (c) of section 46 of chapter 60 of the laws of 1994, section 10 of chapter 339 of the laws of 1972, and section 5 of chapter 554 of the laws of 1986, as amended, when upon such date the provisions of section three of this act shall take effect.
